2 Steamships Sunk

LONDON (CP)—The British steamship Dalrym, 4,558 tons, struck a mine and sank today off the southeast coast of England. Her crew was rescued.

Earlier the sinking of the 4,260-ton Finnish steamship Mercator by a mine off the Scottish coast had been disclosed with the landing of survivors on British soil. One member of the crew was missing.

The Danish schooner Grethe, 264 tons, sank off the mouth of the Thames. She was believed to have struck a submerged wreck.

Canada to Build Big Ground Crews

MONTREAL (CP)—Expectation that Canadians would comprise almost the entire ground force in the vast Empire air-training project was expressed today by Lord Riverdale, head of the British air-mission to Canada, in an interview.

"Although pilots from Australia and New Zealand will come to Canada for final training, we do not anticipate they will be accompanied by any large number of ground staff," he said. "Canada will have to supply most of the men needed for this."

Ratio of ground men needed for each pilot, although about eight to one in active service conditions, is about 2 1/2 to 1 in training, Lord Riverdale said. With Canada scheduled to graduate 25,000 fliers a year under present plans, the permanent ground force should number more than 60,000 men.

On an inspection tour of air-plant manufacturing plants near here, Lord Riverdale said plans for the training project were completed but he was not free yet to discuss them.

"I am pleased with the progress made in aircraft production in plants which I have already seen," he said. "Canada is about to have a real aircraft industry which should prove very useful after the war."

RACING SHEET

LOSES COURT FIGHT

CHICAGO (AP)—The Bulletin Record Publishing Company, publisher of a racing information sheet, today lost its federal court fight with M. L. Annenberg and 13 other defendants who the Record Company charged had conspired to monopolize the dissemination of racing news.

Federal Judge Philip Sullivan dismissed the civil action for want of equity, by upholding the report of Charles McDonald, master in chancery, who heard the case.

The court held the Bulletin Record's publication was a lawful one, but the purpose to which it was put was unlawful—serving bookmakers and their customers.

The racing sheet, the court continued, aided and abetted gambling and if the court were to have acted against the Annenberg interests it, too, would be aiding and abetting.

The case was apart from the criminal proceedings against Annenberg and others, charging evasion of income tax, furtherance of a lottery scheme by use of mails and interstate wires, which still are pending.

Decree Rule In France Long As War Lasts

PARIS (AP)—The Senate today approved extending the power of Premier Daladier to rule France by decree for the duration of the war. The vote was 259 to 23.

The measure already had cleared its major hurdle by gaining approval of the Chamber of Deputies.

The senate's army and finance committees approved the measure after the Premier himself had appeared to support it personally. The finance committee's approval was unanimous; the army groups by 15 to 4, with 4 abstentions.

The bill was ready for presentation to the senate in the same form in which it passed the chamber yesterday.

FUNDS VOTED

The chamber turned its attention to providing funds for carrying on the war.

M. Daladier was the winner last night in twice staking his office on the decree issue. The chamber of deputies first voted confidence in his government, 309 to 188, then approved, 318 to 175, continuation of the decree rule which otherwise would have expired last night.

Le Populaire, newspaper mouthpiece of the Socialist former Premier Leon Blum, interpreted the opposition votes as a "warning" that parliament "does not intend to be held a negligible quantity."

The Socialists fear, among other objections, that the decree powers will exclude the legislators from participating in peace negotiations—a subject on which they have their own particular ideas.

Russians Set Up Rebel Finn Cabinet

MOSCOW (AP)—Tass, official Soviet Russian news agency, reported today a Finnish "people's government" had been formed to overthrow the new Helsingfors cabinet, seize the capital and conclude a "pact of mutual assistance between Finland and Russia."

Tass said the new regime was formed at Terijoki, Finnish town near the point where Russian troops first crossed the border yesterday.

A declaration which Tass said the new government issued called for drastic economic changes, including confiscation of large estates, and a continuation of the present war until the Finnish capital falls into its hands.

(Publication of the proclamation by Tass indicates it has Russian government approval, and it may describe Moscow's intentions concerning Finland's fate.)

In Helsingfors, where a new government was formed, the Russian report of a rebel government evoked ridicule.

Tass said the new government had been formed by agreement of representatives of a number of left parties and Finnish soldiers who, it alleged, rose in revolt.

Tass said the following had "entered the people's government": Otto Kuusinen, chairman and minister of foreign affairs; Mauri Rosenberg, finance; Aksel Anttila, defence; Tuure Lehen, internal affairs; Armas Ejikja, agriculture; Ikeri Kehtinen, education; and Paavo Prokkonen, minister of Karelia affairs.

Called Friends

It published a declaration, which it said had been received by radio from the "People's Government," describing the Soviet Union as a "great friend of the Finnish people" and declaring that the "valiant and invincible red army" was marching into Finland "not as a conqueror but as a friend and liberator of our people."

"It turns out that the plutocratic government of Cajander and Erikko has resigned. This hated government has been replaced by Tanner's government, but Tanner is an enemy of our people, just like Cajander," the declaration said.

(The new Finnish government is headed by Risto Ryt, governor of the Bank of Finland, and Vaino Tanner as minister of foreign affairs.)

The declaration indicated Russia's war against Finland would be carried on until Helsingfors, the capital, fell and a new government was set up.

The announcement that the government regarded itself as a provisional one, and added: "Immediately upon arrival in Helsingfors, capital of the country, it will be reorganized and its composition enlarged by inclusion of representatives of various parties and groups participating in the people's front of toilers. The final composition of the peo-

JAPAN SILENT ON FINNS' FIGHT

TOKYO (AP)—Japan, pressing toward friendlier relations with Soviet Russia, kept officially silent today on the invasion of Finland.

"It is too far away," said Yachihiro Suma, spokesman for the Foreign Office.

Informed quarters interpreted the official attitude as indicative of Japanese aims at rapprochement with Russia, which, it was reliably understood, were progressing.

Conferences have been scheduled at Chita and Harbin for demarcation of Outer Mongolian-Manchoukuo boundaries, at Moscow for a trade agreement, and at Moscow and at Tokyo for discussion of a non-aggression treaty.

Meanwhile, Foreign Minister Kichisaburo Nomura protested to French Ambassador Charles Arsene Henry against the Anglo-French blockade of German exports and objected to inspection of Japanese shipping in the vicinity of French Indo-China.

Suma disclosed that Nomura also had asked cessation of arms transportation to China.

(Nomura was said to have informed the British ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie, in an hour's talk yesterday, that Japan would not recognize the blockade of German exports. Sir Robert was understood to have assured him Great Britain would be careful to avoid damage to neutral countries in applying the blockade, effective next Monday.)

Hungarians Rush Border Defences

BUDAPEST (AP)—Hungary sent additional labor battalions to her Ruthenian-Russian frontier today to complete new fortifications as tension increased over border incidents.

The fortifications are being thrown up in the face of Soviet troops in the Russian-occupied section of Poland.

Persons coming from the region reported considerable tension between the opposing Russian and Hungarian soldiers as a result of Russia's invasion of Finland and repeated incidents along the border. Hungary's Magyars and the Finns are kindred races.

Yesterday, reports were received Russian soldiers had fired on Hungarian sentries.

Air Training Plans Expanded

By NORMAN MACLEOD

OTTAWA—When final details are made public, the huge project announced a month ago as an Empire air training scheme—and which has since been the subject of conferences among representatives of the United Kingdom, Australian, New Zealand and Canadian governments—will be found to have been transformed into a predominantly Canadian picture.

The completed plan, as it has emerged from the conferences, is, consequently, largely Canadian. The fact that the original project has been decentralized to an important degree, furthermore, does not mean that it has undergone any diminution in respect to its total scale. It simply means that the huge part which Canada was prepared to accept in a huge project will be even greater than was originally anticipated.

Canada's share particularly, it is indicated, will be even greater than was anticipated at first. Parliament Hill sources that usually are highly accurate in their forecasts suggest that if the annual outlay to the Dominion treasury ran in the neighborhood of $40,000,000 per month—one large-scale expenditure get under way they will not be surprised.

WHAT BRITAIN WANTS

It is becoming increasingly evident here on Parliament Hill that the assistance which Great Britain wants from Canada is in connection with the Empire's war effort in the air and on the sea. All that Canada can do to support the air offensive of the Allied powers is urgently desired, and an enlarged Canadian shipbuilding program is also wanted.

The fact that Canadian co-operation is being sought in these two decisive phases of the war's activity is recognized in federal circles as making Prime Minister Mackenzie King's recent prophecy—that ultimate victory may well be shaped on Canadian soil—more likely than ever to be fulfilled. So far as the Empire air training scheme is concerned, the process of decentralization which it has undergone in recent discussions arises not from any unwillingness on the part of any of the Empire governments to co-operate, but rather from the natural desire of the Australian and New Zealand governments to have as much of the preliminary training as possible carried out in their own countries. In order to meet the desire of the Australians and New Zealanders to keep their airmen at home as long as possible, and to have the maximum possible expenditures made among their own people—sentiments which the Canadian delegates to the conferences were fully able to understand—a greater portion of early training than originally had been contemplated is to take place, therefore, outside of Canada. The total scheme, however, will still be, it is intimated, on the huge scale which was suggested when it was first put forward.

SOUND WAVES EXPLODE MINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new-type German mines blamed for heavy recent shipping losses in the North Sea were reported today to be so devised that their charge may be set off by sound waves as well as by the magnetic force of a ship's hull.

Informed quarters here said they had received word Great Britain had discovered the secret of the mines by recovering several of them unexploded.

British naval authorities were represented as confident that means of coping with them could be devised quickly.

The British findings were said here to be:

1. The firing mechanism is extremely sensitive and is based on a trigger that can be sprung either by magnetic force or, through acoustical horns, by sound waves.

2. The mines apparently were anchored directly on the sea bottom, rather than set adrift or attached to cables regulating their distance beneath the surface.

3. The explosive charge was heavy enough to blast the hull of a passing surface ship from considerable depth, but the weapons were most effective in comparatively shallow coastal waters. One was recovered from a depth of nearly 150 feet.

4. They apparently were sown considerable distances apart by mine-laying submarines, and then additional mines were dropped in some instances by aircraft, flying high enough above the water not to detonate those already in place.

A firing mechanism sensitive enough to be set off by sound waves or by magnetism would react to an energy ray of some kind, it was suggested.

Deny Nazi Reports Of Samoa Unrest

LONDON (CP)—German allegations that native unrest has broken out in Samoa, former German colony in the Pacific, are a pure invention, according to the Ministry of Information. No effort to suppress any trouble was necessary for the good reason that no unrest took place, the ministry said.

It added that elections for a legislative body in Samoa had taken place without incident, and that many Europeans and natives had proclaimed their loyalty to the Empire and volunteered for active war service. Naturally the New Zealand government did not wish to deviate from terms of its mandate, which prohibited the use of inhabitants of mandated territories for military purposes, and did not accept the offers of service.

The ministry said that early in the war 15 Nazis in Samoa were interned in New Zealand. A number of other Germans were set at liberty on parole.

New Comforts In Army Life

By CHARLES GUNNING

WINNIPEG (CP)—Men of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry are eating their breakfasts more regularly these days and the reason is Canada's new regulation army uniform, according to Sergt. C. P. McPherson. The boys don't have to spend their early minutes on any more polishing brass and winding up yards of puttees.

"The new outfits are a lot easier to slip on," Sergt. McPherson told newspapermen today during a visit to the headquarters of the P.P.C.L.I., the rifle unit which will head the 2nd Infantry Brigade of Canada's First Division overseas.

"The new tunics have five buttons just like the old uniforms, but the new issue buttons are made of bone and don't require nearly as much polishing as the old brass ones."

The sturdy sergeant thought the new khaki as smart as the former suit, if looked after properly. "The trousers hold a swell crease and they fit like gloves," he said.

ROOMY-QUARTERS

The sergeant believes the entire Princess Patricia battalion of more than 900 soldiers could live in the headquarters barracks for an indefinite period without aid from the outside world. Long corridors stretch like arteries through the main section and wings of the building, which is partitioned into scores of rooms.

There are offices for military officers, storerooms filled with meat, canned goods, bread, vegetables, sugar, tea and coffee. Boxes of boots, shirts, underwear, greatcoats, belts, socks and other articles of clothing are piled high.

Shoemaker Sergt. Jim Reading mends nearly 100 pair of military boots each week in his battalion shop. "That represents a lot of marching," he said.

BEST FOOD

Preparing meals for about 900 soldiers is the task of chief cook Sergt. L. Holten and his eight helpers. "Everything they get is the best," said Sergt. Holten. "They clean up everything we put in front of them, so I guess it's okay. The boys don't get napkins or saucers, but we serve almost any kind of food on restaurant menus."

"Everything" includes oatmeal, cornflakes, bacon, eggs, beans, tomatoes, sausages, potatoes, turnips, cabbages, carrots, beef, steaks, pork chops, cheese, puddings, jams, bread, tea, coffee and milk.

Rows of double-decker single beds line the spacious dormitories of the Pats, with modern washrooms and showers along the corridors.

Three lieutenant nurses of the Royal Canadian Medical Corps and three doctors administer medical care in two fully-equipped hospital wards. A regulation billiard table has top spot in a well-lit recreation hall.

GERMANS CLAIM 194 SHIPS SUNK

BERLIN (AP)—The Nazi news agency, DNB, admitted today that 52 neutral ships have been sunk by German mines or submarines up to November 28.

The agency made the admission at the same time the authoritative Nazi commentary Dienst Aus Deutschland warned neutral nations that Germany expects them to resist the Anglo-French blockade of Germany, which is to be extended Monday to seizure of German exports.

DNB said that from the beginning of the war to November 28, 194 vessels, totaling 735,768 tons—both Allied and neutral—headed for Great Britain, had been sunk by German submarines or mines.

The agency said the sinking of 162 ships—52 of them neutral—totaling 639,689 tons, was confirmed by German reports. Non-German sources, it said, disclosed an additional 32 ships of 96,079 tons total, half of them neutral, representing 39,321 tons.

The statement listed 150,867 tons of shipping as tankers and said the average was 7,500 tons per ship—in other words, about 20 tankers.

NAZIS' SUSPICIONS

Dienst Aus Deutschland indicated that neutrals failing to take an energetic stand against the blockade would be suspected of anti-German leanings.

Nazis explained their stand by saying that neutrals must share with the Reich the responsibility for keeping the seas open to commerce.

(Great Britain and France decided to impose a blockade on German exports, starting next Monday, in reprisal for the Nazi mine campaign against Allied and neutral merchantmen which Germany admitted today.)

Dienst Aus Deutschland did not specify what action it felt neutrals should take against the blockade, but observed that "Germany watches their attitude with greatest attention."

New York Papers Condemn Russia

NEW YORK (CP-AP.)

New York's morning newspapers today were unanimous in castigating Soviet Russia for the invasion of Finland.

Particularly caustic was the Times, which said editorially the "bombs" that rained on Finnish workers and peasants finally exploded a mighty illusion. "The newspaper said that in the ruins of Finland 'lies what remained of the world's respect for the government of Russia."

The Herald Tribune termed Russia's action "incredible," and said it no longer could be doubted that in the United States "there are organized agents of a foreign power craftily, by stealth and every deception, plotting our destruction as a free nation."

The Mirror, terming Finland "the spottiest little nation whose cleanliness brings out the fact that the city of Leningrad stinks like a stockyard," said "the Russian ballet is on again... and the dance is 'The Afternoon of a Fraud'."

The News said the "next Russian stab may be at Rumania, in an effort to take back Bessarabia; or it may be down into Iran."

COMMUNIST VIEWS

The Daily Worker, Communist newspaper, in front page editorials and news stories this morning accused the United States government of provoking war against Soviet Russia—"by using Finland as a pawn."

This principal Communist organ in the United States reported resignation of the Finnish cabinet in a bold letter banner beneath which another streamer headline said:

"Red Army Hurls Back Invading Finnish Troops, Crosses Frontier."

A front-page dispatch from Washington was headlined, "U.S. State Department files give secret of F.D.R.'s drive to use Finland as war base."

This story referred to State Department documents which were said to "cast a most illuminating searchlight on the present-day efforts of the governments of Great Britain and the United States to provoke war against the Soviet Union by using Finland as a pawn."

The editorial was captioned: "Wall Street Uses Finland for War."

ACTION IN U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, said that what had happened in Poland and Finland "leaves us with no rational alternative except to drive every trace of Communism and Nazism out of the United States."

"Communism has demonstrated treachery, its brutality and its barbarism in Finland precisely as Nazism demonstrated these bestial qualities in Poland," he said. "We cannot police Europe, but we can and must police America."

THROW BACK

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Russia's invasion of Finland marks a return "to the morals and butchery of Ghengis Khan," former President Herbert Hoover said.

"Civilization struck a new low with the Communists' attack on peaceful Finland," he said at a Young Republicans' thanksgiving dinner here. "It is a sad day, to every decent and righteous man and woman in the world."

Brute Force Marches On

ALTHOUGH JOSEF STALIN STANDS condemned before all the world as the 1939 imitator of Imperialistic Peter the Great, Adolf Hitler's culpability, his robber's partnership with the Soviet brute, is not forgotten as Nazi statesmen decline to comment on the bloodbath to which Communism's soldiers are subjecting the innocents of brave little Finland. Germany's Blitzkrieg in Poland, the merciless bombing of undefended towns and cities, was had enough in all conscience; but the butchery going on in the Baltic republic as this is written stagers the human imagination. Well may it be, as President Roosevelt says, a "profound shock" to the people of the United States, a reminder that "the present trend of force makes insecure the independent existence of small nations in every continent," and "jeopardizes the rights of mankind to self-government."

It may be argued, too, that there is no specific relationship between this new war and the conflict between the Anglo-French allies and Hitler's Reich. It is nevertheless true that the policy which Soviet Russia began to employ after her troops had tasted the fruits of Hitlerism in Poland is precisely the same policy as that which the German Fuehrer threatened at Munich—which had been his guiding principle since he assumed power in 1933—and which he combined with force when gallant Poland accepted his challenge. It is immaterial to the suffering Finns whether at some later stage Muscovites and Nazis fly at one another's throats, whether there is or not a basic difference in their operative philosophies; their concern at the moment is how to extricate themselves from their present unhappy state. Small wonder if these thrifty and peaceful people should say to the world that things have gone far enough—that it is time for humanity as a whole to step in and stop the Hitler-Stalin combination.

The future looks no brighter because there is evidence that the two thieves may fall out sooner or later—perhaps sooner than appears likely at the moment. Russia's game obviously is one of strategy; she is not strong enough to begin to apply totalitarian technique on an exponent so expert in the art. How the cards will be stacked after the Finns have been "suppressed"—as appears to be their fate—will be revealed only by the march of events. What is left of democracy, meanwhile, had better take stock of the prospects for its own preservation.

B.C. Member Wanted

IN A DISPATCH FROM OTTAWA, MR. W. Lloyd Craig, director of British Columbia's Bureau of Trade and Industrial Production, says this province "is geared for wartime production," that heavy cranes, lathes and other machinery are already being built in British Columbia for the Canadian government, that "with war orders under way, unemployment is decreasing in the province, and industrial areas of Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster are expected to increase in activity." Mr. Craig also is quoted as saying that British Columbia shipyards are ready to take war orders in hand and share in the $12,000,000 worth of contracts for submarine chasers, aircraft salvage vessels and minesweeping craft.

When these orders come to the province's industrial plants they will be welcome. Local preparations have been advanced by the co-ordinating work ably carried out under the direction of Mr. John Goldring and Mr. J. A. Heritage. Their investigations will show just what Victoria and other parts of the island will be able to handle in the way of contracts of various types. The information they have collected will not only be extremely valuable in this emergency; it will be available for purposes of industrial and other forms of commercial expansion after essential war needs have been met. But what British Columbia ought to have at Ottawa is a qualified and experienced business man as a member of the War Purchasing Board. Its reorganization and enlargement—already under consideration—should include a careful study of this province's claims. On this point we agree with the Vancouver Daily Province when it says:

"There are two excellent reasons for her claim. The first is that she is the third industrial province of the Dominion. The second is that she is so far away from Ottawa that unless there is someone on the board who is intimately acquainted with the resources and industrial capacities of this province, opportunities, both for serving the country's war needs and for placing orders here, are sure to be missed."

Vancouver's Board of Trade is pressing for a British Columbia appointee to this important federal body. Our own Chamber of Commerce naturally is watching developments and desires to see the province competently represented on the spot. The constant work of Mr. Mayhew and that of industrial co-ordinators Goldring and Heritage would be enhanced if the War Purchasing Board included a British Columbia representative. With such an arrangement consummated, incidentally, Mr. Craig again might be utilized by the provincial department to whose direction he was especially appointed by the government nearly two years ago. After all, this is a permanent branch of the public service, and was established for definite peacetime pursuits.

England's Gardens

IN ENGLAND MANY DWELLERS IN THE suburbs and cities and large towns in the danger zone have been perplexed whether to continue cultivating their gardens or convert them into dugouts. Some have sensibly solved the problem by doing both—that is, covering the dugout with the excavated earth and growing flowers on it. This is an excellent plan, as no space will be wasted, and the flowers will conceal the dugouts from the air.

For other reasons garden-lovers in Britain are being urged not to neglect their gardens. Cut off as the people are from so many amusements, such as racing, football, and in some places theatres and cinemas, they will need some other form of relaxation, and what better and healthier one could there be than gardening? Fruit and vegetables, as the war goes on, are bound to become scarce and dear. If every holder even of the smallest plot of land grew vegetables on it, the shortage would be relieved to an appreciable extent.

During the 1914-18, war waste lots of ground were taken over and let in sections to allotment holders, who grew all the vegetables they needed for their families, and even had some over for the market. Since that war the builder has encroached on these allotments nearly everywhere, but a few remain and are still carefully cultivated. The resourceful Briton, of course, will adapt himself to the stress of circumstances, as usual.

Sentimental Touch

SOME PEOPLE, EVEN IN VICTORIA, are inclined to think our neighbors on the south are hard-boiled, crass, materialistic. But once in a while something turns up which makes them wonder. In West Grove, Pa., the other day, a red rose changed hands. It was payment in a commercial transaction, no less prosaic than the rent.

The rose was handed to a ninth-generation direct descendant of William Penn, Quaker founder of the state, as rent under a quaint deed signed 196 years ago. There are other such "rose rentals" in other Pennsylvania communities, on land originally deeded by the great Penn.

Even the famous "token payments" of pellets made by the Hudson's Bay Company to King George last summer have material value. But a rose! A rose, as Gertrude Stein, "that strange writer," has so pungently reminded us, is a rose is a rose is a rose.

What of His Future?

AL CAPONE HAS STEPPED BACK INTO a world that must look as strange to him as his own glittering era of big business bootlegging looks fantastic to us. He went into prison seven and a half years ago a swaggering bully; he comes out a whimpering psychopathic case.

The scar-faced, gun-toting, blustering Capone once personified the more sordid side of the frenzied twenties; today he is a left-over fragment of an age we would just as soon forget. There are reports that the ex-king of Chicago's underworld is fearful of his life and that the United States federal agents who once hounded him as a prize will now stay close at hand to protect him from possible underworld justice.

Capone was part of the legacy the United States inherited from the last war. He steps back into a country that is watching another war and has no possible use for his kind. Capone once had almost a social standing in an era of jumbled moral codes. Now he rubs his eyes in the sunlight of a society that knows rackets and racketeers for what they are and is determined to stamp them out.

The Victoria fisherman who landed that 700-pound shark off Parksville didn't bother to mention the one that got away.

Civilization reaches the jungle! Criminal bands of South African natives have started carrying arms and using high-powered cars.

Time to Invite U.S. Tourists

There still exists in the United States a widespread belief that Canada, under war conditions, is no place for travel, for a delightful holiday. The fact is, of course, that there are no restrictions on travel, no interference with the automobiles or the legitimate belongings of residents or visitors, and no food rationing. Canada next summer, if anything, should be even more alluring to tourists from south of the border, for they will see men in uniform where there were none for 20 years and more. They will see, also, tens of thousands of pilots of the air forces of Canada, Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand putting thousands of war planes through their paces over scores of military airfields.

Now is the time when Canada should start to tell the people of the United States the many reasons why they should visit the Dominion next summer in greater numbers than ever before. This must be done by advertising, repeated sufficiently often to make sure that its message has reached millions of potential tourists.

It would be good business for the Dominion and provincial governments to increase their appropriations for this purpose this year, in spite of the war. Canada needs United States exchange, and plenty of it. The Dominion can get it from tourists more easily now than from any other source. It should go after it. The resulting business would be very good for Canada as a whole and for tens of thousands of individual Canadians who cater directly to tourists.

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT

THE NEW ARMIES

I WAS NOT IN THE CROWD that went to the docks the other day to say good-bye to the local boys leaving for the battlefield, because I hate good-byes in general and these war good-byes in particular. Strange how the little things stick in the mind. A most persistent memory is not of my chum, ashamed of his sweetheart's public flood of tears, and unconscious of her correct intuitive conviction that he was never coming back. It is about the other boy who had taken such elaborate precautions to keep his kinkfolk from making spectacles of themselves on the station platform, and had allowed them to come to the train with him only after making them swear by all the gods that there would only be the cheerfulness of casual good-bye waves.

I still see the picture clearer than any movie. The boy safely aboard, as planned, sitting well to the front of the coach. The two sisters, and the old nurse, standing together on the platform, waving and smiling so brightly as to seem to be joking. Then in the split second when the boy himself passed from view the three melting into a deluge of tears and grief, with all attempts at play-acting thrown to the wind. And the boy, too, giving way a bit, looking around out of the corner of his eye to see whether anyone was looking, then coughing loudly and pretending that he was only blowing his nose.

BETTER PROSPECTS

BUT I DID GO TO SEE the first of this 1939 army marching down the main street just a day or two before they left. I had just been reading Sir Philip Gibbs' description of his visit to the armies already at the front. I was trying to see if these boys looked any different from those who served before. Gibbs says that the English lads are visibly different than the earlier front-line fighters. Their features are finer, not so square looking. More like town boys, is the way he puts it.

The troops I saw did not seem in any way different from those in the last war, except that they seemed to march in some almost indefinable way differently than even the best-trained units marched before. They seem to keep more closely together, and to be looking further ahead than my generation did. I hope that such an impression is not just my imagination, and that it is prophetic of something better than happened last time.

Certainly it is not my fancy that says that the troops of this 1939 First Division are far better trained, better equipped and better led than was Sam Hughes' army in the early days of the Great War. The foundation of this present division is a permanent force. It is officered by leaders who not only had wartime experience, but have also kept up to date ever since. And it has not been bedeviled by the political appointments which paralyzed the creation of a completely efficient fighting force by Canada in the earlier years of the last war.

SOLDIERS BRAVE AND BRAINY

PROBABLY WHAT Sir Philip Gibbs really meant in his comparison of the present and past British troops was that this generation appeared to have more education than the other, but that it remained to be seen whether or not it had what Shakespeare and the soldiers called "guts."

What made the First Division famous in 1915 was not training or organization or staff work, but plain guts. Faced by an attack unlike any other ever faced by human beings before, they not only held the line against overwhelming odds but rose to what is the final test of any fighting force in any war—the making of a successful counter attack in circumstances which cannot possibly be foreseen.

By so doing they set a standard which those of us who came along afterwards could not have let down without feeling that we were not fit to be called Canadians. I often wonder what the history of the Canadian Corps would have been had our First Division in 1915 met the same fate that the British Fifth Army met in 1918. An inferiority complex has always been the curse of Canada. Insofar as we have begun to escape it, the change dates, more than from anything else, from the Second Battle of Ypres.

OUR DUTY

The Princess Pats have left our shores. To fight our battles, tend our chores; I wonder, do we realize? The duty that all this implies? Do you and I they left behind Engage in work of every kind To ease their troubles, soothe their cares And give them aid in home affairs? Do we send letters without fail To cheer them up, by every mail? Ad comfort parents of their sons bereft Who now have nothing but sad memories left?

And when night comes at close of day Do we kneel down and humbly pray: "O Thou, Who lookest from above, Extend to them Thy boundless love." If we do this, we may be sure That God will bless them more and more; They deserve, and if we fail How can we hope they will prevail? So let us all do what we can To win the war, aid every man.

A LONG SHOT

Hope springs eternal in the human breast. Now there's another Cocos island quest. No cash that prospect ever yet paid back; But, while time lasts, there'll never be a lack Of optimists with ancient charts who hold There's at that rainbow's end a crock of gold.

Where Does India Stand?

By the Canadian Institute of International Affairs

BRITISH INDIA consists of those parts of India which are ruled not by the native princes but by British officials in conjunction with parliaments. Since October 27 eight provincial ministries in British India, representing the All-India National Congress, have resigned. Thus, at a time when most of Britain's energies are being taken up in the prosecution of the war in Europe, the problem of India's constitution has again emerged as a matter of great importance. The Congress Party is in the majority in eight of the 11 British Indian legislatures. A constitutional impasse is likely to arise if Congress members continue to hold their seats in legislatures where the ministries have resigned. In this situation the British provincial governors may feel forced to make use of their reserve power to rule by decree, which might well bring about a widespread political struggle.

The present actions of the Congress Party spring from some immediate grievances and also from a disappointment in the constitutional reforms attained after the last war. In its recent statements, the working committee of the Congress Party has opposed the decreed prolongation of the central government's life for an additional year, the decision of the government of India to participate in the war in Europe, and the sending of Indian troops to Singapore, Aden, Egypt and elsewhere abroad. As British India has no control over its foreign and defence policies, the Congress Party looks upon the decisions with regard to participation in the war and the movement of troops overseas as forcing the country into the war without its consent. While in 1935 the army secretary, on the government of India's behalf, made a conditional promise that the central legislature would be consulted on the matter of sending troops outside the country, no such step was taken before the recent dispatch of Indian troops abroad.

ABOUT 1,300,000 Indian troops and auxiliaries took part in the last war, about 178,000 more than were dispatched from all the Dominions together. Mahatma Gandhi himself helped recruit these men. Of them some 73,400 were killed and 85,000 wounded. India gave about $150,000,000 to Britain's war chest and subscribed an even larger sum to the war loans. In consequence, the Montagu-Chelmsford reforms of 1919 provided for a small degree of responsible government. Two long and bitter "non-co-operation" struggles led finally to the Government of India Act of 1935, which has as yet produced only provincial autonomy.

Lord Linlithgow, the Viceroy, stated on September 11 that the plan of federation, contemplated by the act of 1935, would not be undertaken until the end of the war. A few days later, after a session devoted to considering questions arising out of the war, the Congress Party's working committee issued a manifesto outlining its policy. This declaration, besides condemning Germany's aggression, asked Britain to make known its war aims and suggested full freedom for India so that it might act as an equal partner with Britain in the war. In discussing this statement, Mahatma Gandhi put the question: "Will Great Britain have an unwilling India dragged into the war, or a willing ally co-operating with her in the prosecution of the defence of true democracy?"

AT THE END of September the Viceroy began a series of talks with Indian leaders of all shades of opinion. He then summed up the results of these conferences in a statement, issued as a British White Paper on October 18, which amounted to a reply to the manifesto of mid-September. The main points were: That the British government had not as yet defined its war aims in detail and felt that such definition could only come at a later stage in the war, and then only with the consent of its other allies; that, as previously declared, the aim of Britain's policy in India is that the country "may attain its due place among the Dominions"; that although the federal scheme of the act of 1935 had been temporarily postponed, when the time came for considering it again, further consultations would be held "with a view to co-operation in framing any such modifications as may seem desirable"; that when peace came the suspended plan would be regarded as "open to modification in the light of Indian views"; that for the time being the Viceroy would at once establish a "consultative group representative of all the major political parties in British India and of the Indian princes," the Viceroy choosing the committee from panels drawn up by the parties, and inviting it to meet under its own chairmanship, and that the purpose of the meetings would be the "association of public interest in India with the conduct of the war and with questions relating to war activities."

MAHATMA GANDHI found this declaration "profoundly disappointing," and the provincial legislature in which the Congress Party has control voted their disapproval prior to the resignations. But the Secretary of State for India, the Marquess of Zetland, backed by the Viceroy, pointing out that the minorities in India had always requested safeguards against "what might be the consequences of an unfettered domination of the majority." Also, on October 26, Sir Samuel Hoare emphasized the racial and class divisions in India and stated that "communal bitterness" is the chief stumbling block in the way of India's "constitutional advance," and that if Britain were to withdraw she would be "false to the pledges we have given in the most solemn words to the Moslems and other minorities and the European community." However, Col. Wedgwood Benn, a former Labor Secretary of State for India, thought that the Viceroy's report was a "clumsy document," and that India should be assured that the cause for which the country is fighting is also her cause—freedom. He suggested the summoning of a conference which would be really representative of all groups, and proposed that the British delegation's function at such a meeting should be in "broad terms to set a seal upon the agreement to which the Indians may come themselves."

MORE RECENTLY the Congress Party has suggested that a constitutional assembly of Indians be convened to draw up a new constitution for British India which would give it complete independence within the Commonwealth. Congress leaders have put it bluntly that they must have their way or there will be trouble. British officials have again raised the questions of communal differences, and pledges to minorities.

The criticism of the British officials and leaders, so strongly deprecating the racial and communal divisions that exist in India, are a challenge to Indian nationalists. If and when the British Indian communities are able to agree on a common policy for immediate reforms, they will be able to exercise great pressure on Britain. Britain might be compelled to give an irrefutable proof of the democratic nature of its war aims by showing that it is ready to give India Dominion status, and by starting discussions on the actual steps which are necessary to the realization of that end.

FIEND OF THE CURB

From Printed Word

Among all the fiends that torment mankind a foremost place must be given to the expert in iniquity who slyly puts handbills between the windshield and the windshield wiper of parked automobiles.

How the ticket-simulating fiend must chuckle at his victim's intense concern! There is no doubt the fact that this form of advertising hits an all-time high in reader interest. The motorist practically runs to his car, and with trembling fingers he pulls the handbill that looks like a ticket from its resting place between the windshield and the windshield wiper. The miserable wretch shakes before the power of this advertising.

But there is a happy ending to this tale. Justice triumphs in that the guilty, law-breaking motorist finds it isn't a police ticket after all and that he doesn't lose those $2.—Justice is defeated in that the advertiser who has spent money on the handbill gets no benefit from it at all.

APPLE JUICE

From Windsor Star

Orange juice and tomato juice have become household names. They are nutritious, healthy and pleasant. Now Mr. R. J. Hilton, head of the department of horticulture at Macdonald College, urges that apple juice should be Canada's breakfast drink.

There is no limit to the number of apples that can be grown in Canada, in the Maritimes, Ontario and British Columbia, particularly. There is no reason why apple juice cannot be popularized. It would benefit consumers and producers alike if this were done.

Packard Motors Have Birthday

This is the 40th birthday season for the Packard Motor Car Company. The first Packard car was completed November 6, 1899. A partnership, organized to build other Packard cars, was formed December 30, 1899. The first sale of a Packard car occurred January 3, 1900.

J. W. and W. D. Packard, electrical fixture manufacturers, built the first Packard in their factory at Warren, Ohio. It ran so successfully that the Packards formed a partnership with George

L. Weiss, one of the organizers of the Winton Company, to build more of the machines.

In the fall of 1900 the first automobile show was held in New York. Packard is the only now-existing company which displayed its horseless carriages in this show. All of the three cars exhibited were sold. These sales and the certain promise of more launched the newly-formed partnership into the Ohio Automobile Company, formed in 1900. The name was changed to the Packard Motor Car Company in 1902, and the plant was moved to Detroit in 1903.

The first Packard was a single-cylinder, nine-horsepower machine in which were originated many features now used on all motor cars. Notable among these is the automatic spark advance.

The car is still in good running condition and is enshrined in a bronze and glass case in the lobby of the James Ward Packard Engineering Laboratory at Lehigh University. It is a permanent monument to J. W. Packard, who made possible the building of the big laboratory, through an endowment to Lehigh, his alma mater.

LONDON—Violent fighting is in progress today along the Yser canal, according to a telegram from Reuter's correspondent at Paris. The roaring of heavy guns has been heard all day, and houses as far away as Sluis are shaken.

BERNE—Gustav Ador, chief of the Geneva agency for prisoners of war, is arranging with the belligerent governments for an exchange of prisoners who are seriously wounded or so crippled as to render them unfit for further military service.

Details of a daring but unproductive hold-up at Sookie Harbor Hotel, suppressed for some days to allow the provincial police to follow up the offenders, have now come to light simultaneously with the arrest of Timothy War-sillief, a Russian, who is believed to have been one of the gunmen.

Victoria swimming enthusiasts are planning to send Miss Madge Griffin, the provincial ladies' swimming champion, to the exposition swimming races at San Francisco next August.

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR PATS' BAND

WINNIPEG (CP)—Bandmaster A. L. Streeter predicted today a bright future for his Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry musicians although they had almost no musical experience before joining the regiment.

"All my boys were chosen from recruits who had very little musical training before they enlisted, but they are going to shape up all right," the bandmaster told interviewers.

The bandmaster joined the P.P.

C.L.I., just before the war broke out, journeying from London, Eng., to take his appointment. He is a former bandmaster for the 13th Royal Hussars, Imperial Cavalry Regiment, and once was acting-inspector of all military bands in England.

Just before coming to Canada

Bandmaster Streeter was offered a symphony orchestra in Folkestone, Eng. He turned it down.

The bandmaster was born in London, Eng., 38 years ago. His father was the late A. A. Streeter of Brantford, Ont., and his grandfather the late A. Streeter of Winnipeg.

Paper Showers As House Ends

With traditional ceremony, followed by brief hilarity, the third session of British Columbia's 19th Parliament was prorogued yesterday afternoon by Hon. Eric W. Hamber, 15th Lieut.-Governor of the province.

It was the shortest regular session in history, lasting only four weeks and two days. Usually the session runs six weeks.

His Honor, who was accompanied by his naval and military aides, Lieut.-Commander C. E. Donaldson, R.C.N.V.R., and Major Maurice Turner, and his private secretary, A. M. D. Fairbairn, sat on the throne while Clerk of the House Langley read out the 67 new acts of Parliaments to which His Honor assented.

Mr. Speaker Whittaker, in ancient parlance, that has come down the ages, said, "We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, in session assembled, approach Your Honor at the close of our labors with sentiments of unfeigned devotion and loyalty to His Majesty's person and government and humbly beg to present to Your Honor's acceptance Bill No. 75, entitled 'An Act for Granting Certain Sums of Money for the Public Service'."

ACCEPTS BENEVOLENCE

To which the Clerk of the House said, "In His Majesty's name, His Honor doth thank His Majesty's loyal subjects, accept their benevolence and assent to this bill."

His Honor read his brief speech, mentioning the war and reminding the House worse days may be in store for everyone. Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, then read the words of prorogation, after which His Honor and party left.

Then the members let loose and hurried into the air the order papers, bills and resolutions over which they had poured and debated many hours, until the floor and desks were white.

Premier Pattullo was honored by his colleagues in the cabinet with a great pot of amber and rust-colored rosebuds, 40 in number, as it was the 40th wedding anniversary of the Premier and Mrs. Pattullo, both of whom were showered with good wishes and felicitations from all sides of the House.

The three lady members wore flowers in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Smith gardenias, Mrs. Steeves a red carnation at her waist and Mrs. Jamieson red and white carnations on her left shoulder.

As soon as His Honor left the Chamber, Capt. Macgregor Macintosh went to the foot of the Speaker's dais and led in God Save the King.

Today the members were on their way home to the far corners of British Columbia.

The Peruvian exhibit at the New York World's Fair includes perfect specimens of Chimu Indian pottery, dating from before the Christian Era to about 1100 A.D.

Presentation to Post Office Man

In the postal service for 48 years at his retirement November 3, Ernest M. Haynes of Victoria was honored at a presentation ceremony held in the local Post Office Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Haynes was for the past 16 years inspector of postal service for the Vancouver district which covered Vancouver Island and the British Columbia coast and islands north to the Alaska border.

The presentation ceremony was arranged by members of the local Post Office staff headed by Postmaster G. H. Gardiner, railway postal clerks of the island and members of the district office of postal services in Vancouver. Postmaster Gardiner made the presentation of a mantle clock to Mr. Haynes and Mrs. Haynes. Mrs. Haynes was presented with a silver flower basket complete with a bouquet of red roses by Miss H. Jeffrey, woman member of the Post Office staff.

In making the presentation Mr. Gardiner said that Mr. Haynes was one of the most popular inspectors throughout the Dominion, and his help to the postmasters in the outlying district would be remembered always.

Mr. Gardiner told of the hardships Mr. Haynes encountered on his district trips. The welcome he received from the outlying postmasters was worth the hardships though, he said.

Mr. Haynes was born in Victoria on November 3, 1874. He entered the service as a postal clerk in the Victoria office on August 10, 1891. He became assistant postal inspector on February 9, 1913, and was made inspector of postal services on April 1, 1923. When he entered the service Noah Shakespeare was postmaster here.

I.O.D.E. Gift Tea Drew Many Guests

About 50 guests attended the delightfully arranged "gift tea" held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Leggatt, Beach Drive, yesterday afternoon by the Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie Chapter I.O.D.E. Mrs. Peter Cunningham, the regent, assisted the hostess in receiving the guests in the flower-decked reception rooms.

Mrs. Kyrle Symons and Mrs. W. Wingate presided at the tea table, which was covered with a fillet lace cloth and had as its centerpiece a mirror base on which stood a silver candelabrum surrounded by little Chinese jade figurines. Single ivory tapers stood at each end in silver candlesticks. Assisting with the tea arrangements were Mrs. V. M. Gallon, Mrs. R. T. Murphy and Miss E. M. King.

As each guest arrived, she received a numbered ticket from a silk top hat and this was exchanged for a gift, which was handed to her by Miss Kathryn Ann Murphy, who stood beside an electrically-lit cellophane Christmas tree. Mrs. Smith, Burdick Avenue, won the cake-guessing contest. About $40 was realized for the chapter's work.

The pleasure of the afternoon was enhanced by the musical program, to which Miss Ethel James contributed pianoforte solos and a musical monologue, and also played the accompaniments for Mrs. J. Radcliffe, who sang several pleasing solos.

Miss Barbara Warner opened the door for the guests.

Social and Personal

Mrs. E. W. Hamber entertained at a dinner party last evening at Government House, when her guests included the wives of the cabinet ministers and members of the provincial Legislature, a number of whom left later on the midnight boat for their homes in distant constituencies.

Covers were laid for 30 at a table beautifully arranged with silver bowls of dusty pink Buckingham chrysanthemums with asparagus fern, and green tapers in silver candelabra. Bridge was enjoyed later.

Women outnumber men four to one in the first year motor mechanics class at Central Technical School, Toronto. Most of the women are taking the course to be prepared to fill the shoes of men called to the war front. About 70 women are enrolled in two classes exclusively for women at Northern Vocational. So many applications have been received at the latter school that a third class is being formed. The spirit and attitude of Velma Sheppard, left, pretty brunette, who in the daytime is a stenographer, crystallizes the general feeling of women dabbling in what previously was a strictly masculine field. She says: "I don't like playing around with grease and dirt. I don't like the idea of breaking my finger-nails, but somebody has to do the work of the men when they go to fight." She is shown with Irene Saloni investigating the innards of a motor.

WEDDINGS

BARRETT-MOORE

Of wide interest was the wedding that took place in Vancouver this afternoon in the vestry of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Point Grey, when Rev. Father J. H. Keenan united in marriage Rosalie Ethel (Rolle), second daughter of Mrs. E. H. Moore of 3820 Douglas Road, Vancouver, and Mr. Desmond Barrett of Victoria, younger son of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Barrett of Victoria.

The bride was given in marriage by Colonel E. B. Westby of Vancouver and wore a smart two-toned French imported ensemble, designed after a Mainbocher model, in polliu blue and black, with hammered buttons forming the distinctive trimming. This was complemented with a French imported snood model hat of black beaver.

The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. Bill Barrett of Vancouver.

Following the marriage service a reception was held at the Hotel Vancouver.

After a brief honeymoon on the mainland the bride and bridegroom will make their home in Victoria at the Cathay Apartment Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Barrett went to Vancouver for the wedding. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston, and the University of British Columbia. The bride is president of the famous "Flying Seven."

Cannon and Mrs. Cannon, 1122 Queen's Avenue, were united in marriage by Rev. T. G. Griffiths. Mrs. Griffiths played the wedding marches. As the register was being signed, Mrs. W. C. Williams sang "Because."

The ceremony was performed between standard baskets filled with yellow and white feathery chrysanthemums before a fireplace. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a frock of teal blue crepe with a small wine hat and veil and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and bouvardia.

Attending her was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Lily Cannon, in a pale blue frock and hat, with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations, and Mr. Percy Wickens was best man.

The guests were received by Mrs. Mason in a French violet cutwork velvet gown with a shoulder spray of pink carnations, and a hat in a deeper shade of violet, and Mrs. Cannon Sr. was dressed in navy blue with red carnations. A silver basket of pink chrysanthemums flanked the supper table, and at one end stood the bride's cake surmounted with a vase of pink carnations.

JOHNSON-PROTHEROE

At St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, last evening at 9, Ven. Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn united in marriage Rosa Jean, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. G. The chancel and altar were decorated with baskets of large chrysanthemums, smaller blooms marking the guest pews. Mr. F. T. C. Wickett, the organist, played the wedding music and during the signing of the register accompanied the hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Mr. Protheroe gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a lovely frock of white lace in wild rose design, made on princess lines with a slight train, the bodice trimmed with wide bands of slipper satin, her bolero jacket and mittens being in lace to match. Her coronet was made of white tulle roses, from which hung her filmy veil in fingertip length, with white tulle roses in one corner. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

For Future Giants
DUNDEE, Scotland.—That the average height of the human race is increasing as much as a third of an inch in 12½ years, was the opinion of Prof. W. E. Le Gros Clark, addressing the British Association here.

The Queen turns her attention from war to an array of toy dogs, teddy bears and rabbits for Christmas isn't very far away and Her Majesty believes in shopping early. In the above photograph, Queen Elizabeth is shown purchasing gifts made by war veterans at the Lord Robert Disabled Ex-servicemen's workshops in London.

Spanish Refugee Child Unclaimed

LONDON.—A nine-year-old Spanish girl, Elisa Iturralde, who was sent to Bristol three years ago as a war refugee from Bilbao, is still unclaimed.

After the war, as her parents could not be found, she remained with her foster parents. Recently, however, through an amazing coincidence, a Spanish ship docked at Bristol and Mr. Reed, her temporary father, visited the captain and showed him an envelope on which was written the last address of Elisa's parents.

Curiously enough the captain also came from Bilbao and on being shown a photograph of the child in a family group he pointed excitedly to a woman in the picture saying: "That is Elisa Maza. I remember her well. Maza was her maiden name. She is the child's mother and before her marriage she worked for my sister-in-law."

Little Elisa then visited the captain and had tea with him on board. The captain has now written to his wife in Spain asking her to search the town for the child's mother. Elisa has also included a message in the letter.

RED CROSS SHOW TOMORROW NIGHT

The dog show being sponsored by the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association, with entire proceeds going to the Red Cross Society, will be held tomorrow evening at the Crystal Garden.

Entries for the show will be taken at the door from 7 until 8, when the judging will commence. Cliff Lumb of Vancouver will judge all breeds. Mrs. C. E. Wilson will present the decisions on the dress parade, which will be a feature of the show.

In addition to the list of classes already announced, there will be a champion's class, which is expected to attract keen competition. An interesting sidelight of the show will be 10 pointer pups on display. The pups are owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Davy, whose pointer gave birth to 14 pups a month ago. "Vickey," the Red Cross collecting St. Bernard pup, owned by Mrs. G. C. Bloomfield, will also be shown.

Costly Embarrassment

Quints' Gifts for Nurse Bride-to-Be

CALLANDER, Ont. (CP).—Five sad little girls, dressed in the floor-length organdie gowns which they wore when presented to the King and Queen in Toronto last May, acted as hostesses at a farewell party for their nurse, Miss Molly O'Shaughnessy yesterday.

The Dionne quintuplets and other members of the nursery staff joined in giving a shower for the nurse who is to be married to Charles Joseph MacMillan here Saturday. Miss O'Shaughnessy of Cobalt, Ont., has been with the quintts for more than three years.

Following presentation of gifts by hospital staff members, including Dr. A. R. Dufoe, the quintts' physician, each of the quintts in turn hugged and kissed their nurse, the kisses being wet with parting tears.

The little girls presented Miss O'Shaughnessy with a dozen towel sets.

Peer Promoted
LONDON.—Among the Territorial who have received commissions with the recent mobilization of all strength, is Lord Wolverton, for several years a private in the "Terriers." He is a banker in peacetime.

The new DC-4 cost over $1,500,000 to build and test. The plane has a wing length of 138 feet, and is 24 feet 6 inches high. The ship has four motors of 1,400 h.p. each.

Napoleon Started Canned Goods

How many housewives who take down a tin of food from their store cupboards realise that the instigator of canned foods was Napoleon Bonaparte.

Miss Janet Bond, principal of the Canned Foods Advisory Bureau, London, England, in a wartime coker book showing how to use canned foods to the fullest and best extent, has told the history of food canning.

It was in 1795 that Napoleon, foreseeing the difficulties of victualling his armies, offered a prize of 12,000 francs to anyone who could invent a method of preserving food from one harvest to another.

The prize was won 14 years later by a Paris confectioner who devised a means of preserving food in glass.

In 1810 an Englishman, Peter Durand, made the first food tins, and 10 years later canned foods were being marketed commercially. Peas, sardines and tomatoes were the first goods to be put up.

Iron rations were used in small quantities in the Crimean War. A tin of bacon and vegetables packed by an Irish firm for the troops in 1855 is still in existence.

Britain Reconstructs
MADRID.—It is unlikely the war will interfere with Sir Edward Lutyens' work in Spain. The British architect is at present rebuilding the palace of the Duke of Alba near here.

Want More Air
CROYDON, England.—Complaints of women here and in Westminster City have led to a ban of smoking in air raid shelters. The women pleaded they were "nearly suffocated."

Economy Pleas to Nazi Housewives

Asked Not to Use Pillowslips Nor Table and Teacloths.

LONDON.—The hardships that now face the German housewife are illustrated in almost daily appeals over the radio for economy in one direction or another.

Recently a Nazi woman announcer urged her listeners to stop using pillowslips, tablecloths and teacloths.

Stressing the needs for economizing on every little scrap of soap, she said that village laundries for peasant women were being introduced in country districts.

"It is not necessary to use pillow cases," she declared, "just put the pillow under the sheet without any cases; that will do just as well."

"It is not necessary to dry your dishes. Wash them well and let them dry in the air. That will economize on teacloths."

"Why use tablecloths in peasant households? Peasants formerly used to eat off the table; let them do so again!"

Peasant women were also asked not to wear ordinary aprons when doing heavy work, but to use aprons of sack-cloth.

In another broadcast German women were informed:

"Old bicycle tires can be used for making soles for shoes. It is quite easy and you can do it yourself."

WARTIME BRIEFS

More than 30,000 British women have volunteered for service on the land, and about 24,000 are now enrolled in the Women's Land Army.

This was announced in the House of Commons by Sir Reginald Dorman-Smith, Minister of Agriculture.

During September, he said, 900 women were placed in employment on the land, and he estimated that this number had since been doubled.

The War Office has decided that there is no need at present for women ambulance drivers to be sent to France.

Some 1,500 women have already enrolled for this type of work, and there is a waiting list of several hundred.

They will remain at home for the time being, and their services will be used in connection with accidents at depots and training camps.

Each 100 pounds of sea water contains about three and a half pounds of salt. Our lakes and streams are spoken of as fresh water only by comparison, since the salt content in them is about 200 times less abundant than in sea water.

Motion picture cameras attached to captive balloons are being used to study traffic speeds and behavior of drivers.

Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

TELLS SAFE, SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if the phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Eucalypti (Double Strength). Take this and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement in some cases noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headache, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear. Loss of voice, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

Saanich Farmers Elect Officers

(Special to the Times)

SAANICHTON — All officers were re-elected at the annual general meeting of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society, held recently in the Saanich Pioneers' Cabin, Agricultural Hall grounds.

The president, George T. Michell, gave a resume of the year's work and of the 71st annual fall fair, which he said was very successful, despite the fact entries were somewhat lower in number than usual, owing possibly to the war, but the quality was above the average.

He referred to the new buildings and the renovation of the grounds and thanked those who had given their time and labor on the various "working bees" which had been held.

OFFICERS RETURNED

Officers returned, in addition to Mr. Michell, were R. P. Butchart, honorary president; Fred Turgoose, honorary vice-president; J. J. White, first vice-president; Alex McDonald, second vice-president; J. A. Nunn, third vice-president; Stuart G. Stoddard, secretary-treasurer; J. M. Malcolm, A. N. Primeau, Mrs. R. E. Nimmo, H. E. Burbridge, Willard W. Michell, finance committee; J. R. Scooby and Ed.

Oakes, auditors: A. W. Aylard, C. H. Borden, H. E. Burbridge, Frank Butler, Russell Crawford, Rev. J. J. Cyr, A. Calvert, Ian Douglas, Frank Doyle, A. Doney, Nat Gray, V. E. L. Goddard, C. G. Gibson, D. H. Heyer, L. C. Hagan, Gavin Jack, George Little, Arthur Lock, W. J. H. Miller, W. D. Michell, Willard W. Michell, J. M. Malcolm, George W. Malcolm, A. D. McDonald, R. E. Nimmo, James E. Nimmo, H. C. Oldfield, A. N. Primeau, Ralph Rendle, R. V. Robinson, A. G. Smith, L. E. Taylor, Frank Tanner, James Turner, E. J. T. Woodward, Hugh J. McIntyre, directors. Newly elected to the directorate were Austin Wilson, Harold S. Timberlake, J. Mahon and B. Price.

A life membership was conferred on Robert Brydon in appreciation of his long association with the society and for his active interest in the highland dancing events, for which he gave the splendid platform.

The meeting stood in silent tribute to the memory of K. R. Streetfield, president of the society for several years.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies, and a discussion was held between the Agricultural Society and members of the recently formed Swine Improvement Association, which is being supported by federal and provincial governments.

E. J. T. Woodward of "Darby Farm," Albert Head, donated a pure-bred boar to the Agricultural Society, the trusteeship being placed in the hands of Willard W. Michell.

Preliminary plans were made for the 72nd annual fair next year. The ladies of the society will hold their meeting shortly to elect members to their directorate.

There is no basis for the notion that saturating the system with iodine will keep hair from turning grey and give it a reddish brown tinge, says an authoritative medical association.

Island Priests At Conference

Priests from all parts of Vancouver Island came to Victoria yesterday for the second annual diocesan conference of St. Andrew's Cathedral.

The proceedings opened in the morning with a special Solemn High Mass, sung in honor of St. Andrew, patron saint of the Cathedral.

Msgr. A. G. Baker was the celebrant, assisted by Father J. A. Gaudette, deacon and Father J. J. Cyr, Saanichton, sub-deacon. Rev. John C. Cody, Bishop of Victoria, was on the throne, attended by Fathers Lewis MacLellan, Nanaimo, and W. J. Smith, Port Alberni. Father Alex McDonald of Nanaimo was assistant priest and delivered the sermon. Father G. O. Penfold was master of ceremonies. Priests in the sanctuary were Fathers J. R. Buckley, the Willows; W. Lemmens and X. Lauzon; Tzouhalem; J. Latour; Duncan; Cameron; Kuiper Island; R. Monaghan, Sweeney, Osborne, and Sobry, Victoria.

Bishop Cody was chairman of the meetings which followed a luncheon in the Bishop's House. The war, he said, had caused postponement of the opening of the circulating library, which he hoped would be in operation by Lent. He asked co-operation for the tag day which the Knights of Columbus will hold tomorrow in aid of their war huts.

Four papers were read at the conference, as follows:

Msgr. Baker on "St. Thomas Moore"; Father Penfold, secretary of the conference, on "The Rubrics of the Low Mass"; Father C. T. Albury, Courtenay, on "The Diocesan Eucharistic Congress to Be Held in Courtenay in 1940," and Bishop Cody on "The Diocesan Circulating Library."

Hon. W. D. Herridge Given Nomination

KINDERSLEY, Sask. (CP)—Hon. W. D. Herridge, leader of New Democracy, was officially nominated as that party's candidate in the Kindersley federal constituency, at a convention here last night. The seat was left vacant with the resignation of O. B. Elliott, formerly Social Credit member, but so far, no by-election has been ordered by the federal government.

Chairman of the convention, which was attended by 99 delegates and 150 visitors, was Joseph Needham, M.P. for the Battlefords, only Social Credit member from Saskatchewan.

George H. Barr, K.C., Regina, provincial president of New Democracy, addressed the convention.

Although no other party conventions have been held in this constituency since Mr. Elliott's resignation some weeks ago, a federal candidate, A. H. D. Mitchell, principal of the Kindersley school, was named by the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in anticipation of a general election. The C.C.F. recently declared it would contest a by-election in the constituency.

Following the convention a public meeting, attended by 500 persons, was addressed by Mr. Herridge.

The candidate said Canadians must be told that nothing but their best effort is good enough—to win the war, and as "we are the hated enemy of all the freedom-hating powers, we must prepare as if we had to fight the lot of them."

"Today we are only fighting Germany," he said. "But when Hitler is confronted with defeat, he will reach out for allies. If Hitler will pay the price of Communism, will he not have an ally? And Hitler will pay any price to beat the British Empire. Always remember that."

AID FOR FARMERS OF SASKATCHEWAN

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion government has declared a crop failure area to exist in Saskatchewan, data on township yields in other prairie provinces is being examined by the committee of review, according to an announcement by Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture.

Under the Prairie Farm Assistance Act passed at the last regular session of Parliament, the governor-in-council may, when the average yield of wheat as a result of anything other than hail is five bushels an acre or less in each of not less than 135 townships in Saskatchewan or 100 in Alberta or Manitoba, declare a crop failure area.

The committee of review reported 165 townships in Saskatchewan were eligible under this provision and have recommended establishment of such an area. Four townships may be added as examination of the records proceeds.

It is also expected findings of the committee with regard to areas in the three prairie provinces which will be eligible under the emergency year provision of the act, will be received within a week or 10 days.

VICTOR GILBERT HEADS KINSMEN

At the meeting of the Victoria Kinsmen Club last evening in Spencer's dining-room, the annual election of officers was held with Victor Gilbert succeeding Ronald Whittington as president for the ensuing year.

Harold Winterburn was named secretary, Harold Bourne, treasurer, and William Passmore, registrar.

It was decided that the installation of the new officers would be held at the first meeting of the club in January.

Man's Loose Words Conviction Quashed

TORONTO (CP)—Judge E. A. Honeywell nullified the conviction of Mitchell Gay, 53, on a charge of making statements "intended or likely" to prejudice recruiting. In granting the appeal yesterday, the judge said the case was "almost equal to the famous old example of the witch-burning of Salem."

Gay said he entered a beer parlor and when a conversation developed with some soldiers in uniform he was asked if he was a Communist. He replied jokingly that he was. He was taken seriously, and four days later he learned he had been charged under the Defence of Canada regulations for statements he had made to the soldiers.

He was convicted October 6 by Magistrate S. Forsyth and fined $50, with an option of 30 days in jail.

"It is absolutely essential that we do not allow ourselves to get into a panic condition," Judge Honeywell said. "If this thing is carried too far that condition is liable to arise and mob psychology is a dangerous thing."

"We have," continued the judge, "to be very careful that we do not allow any person to discredit our forces or to do anything to interfere with the voluntary actions of the citizens in enlisting. Yet we must be very careful in interfering with individuals unless it is shown they actually committed the offence."

Tax Collections at Ladysmith Drop

LADYSMITH—Tax collections in Ladysmith are $2,000 less this year than for the same period in 1938, Alderman Jameson, chairman of the finance committee announced at the regular meeting of the City Council. The information was disclosed on the heels of requests for aid from the city's donation fund. The decline in tax collections had become marked since the outbreak of war.

War Compensation

LONDON (CP)—A white paper states the government had undertaken to pay compensation for war damages to property on the highest scale possible at the end of March, 1939, will be the basis of usual settlement for damages to immovable property.

Make More Cheese

BROCKVILLE, Ont. (CP)—To cope with the prospective British demand for cheese, from 15 to 20 large cheese factories in this district are expected to remain open this winter, in some cases for the first time in their history, according to officials of the cheese-making industry.

Erkko's Daughter Wounded

COPENHAGEN (AP)—Reports from Helsingfors today said that Patricia, 17-year-old daughter of Finnish Foreign Minister Eljas Erkko, was injured in a Russian air raid on the Finnish capital yesterday.

The home of Erkko, member of the resigned cabinet of Premier Aimo K. Cajander, was said to have been demolished. It was situated near Helsingfors harbor.

Pamphlets Barred

OTTAWA (CP)—Pamphlets by Premier Molotoff of Soviet Russia and Earl Browder, United States Communist leader, have been banned from Canada by the press censors, it was disclosed in a national revenue department memorandum to the collectors of customs and excise.

Molotoff's pamphlet was entitled "The Meaning of the Soviet-German Non-aggression Pact," published by the Workers' Library Publishers in New York. Browder's pamphlet was entitled "Unity for Peace and Democracy" and published by the same organization.

Russia's Course Described as Brutal

MELBOURNE (CP)—The newspaper Age today charged Russia with "the technique of brutality made familiar by Hitler."

It said the "Kremlin schemers" lacked originality and were merely imitating their Nazi confederates.

"There will be widespread revulsion at the wanton assault on Finland, whose only offence was the possession of lands and islands coveted by the Soviet for strategic purposes," said the paper. "Russia's relations with many important countries for years will be colored and influenced by her indefensible treatment of Finland."

Gen. Gough Gives Pledge for German

LONDON (CP)—Evidence that General Sir Hubert Gough, commander of the British Fifth Army in the First Great War, was willing to become surety for Johanna Elly Simon, German opera singer, was given yesterday when the refugee was recommended for deportation in the Bow Street Police Court.

The opera singer, who wishes to join her husband in Canada, was charged with possession of an irregular passport. She was allowed bail pending consideration of her case by the Home Office. Defence counsel revealed that the member of a "certain embassy" who had assisted Frau Simon to flee to England was R. M. Stephenson, former assistant commercial attaché of the U.S. embassy in Berlin.

A cable from Mr. Stephenson, who is now in the United States, confirmed the woman was a genuine refugee and not a spy.

'Jungle Law'

Sympathy But No Aid for Finland

By the Canadian Press

Finland got sympathy from most of the world today, but no concrete offer of assistance in her defence against the Soviet Russian invasion.

Germany and Japan notably kept aloof from the general outpouring of indignation at the Russian onslaught.

The British press cried that Finland was being murdered, and called her a martyr for freedom. Despite the sympathetic expressions of Prime Minister Chamberlain and parliament, however, it was pointed out that Great Britain had no commitments on behalf of Finland, and that the geographical position would make aid difficult should the Empire wish to give it.

The Times of London suggested the possibility of an ultimate rupture between Russia and her new friend, Germany, as a result of the Finnish affair.

It was understood Russia had been warned her trade negotiations with Britain would be jeopardized if she attacked Finland.

In the United States, President Roosevelt conferred with Hjalmar Procopio, Finnish Minister in Washington, and displayed grave concern.

Germany was officially silent.

but authorized sources in Berlin said the Nazi regime, which divided Poland with the Soviet, was "sympathetic to Russia," and had "an understanding of Russia's desire to protect Leningrad."

Japan kept silent, both officially and in her press.

"It is too far away," said Yachihiro Suma, the Japanese foreign office spokesman.

FEELER ACTION

This attitude was interpreted among informed Tokyo circles as indicating a desire for closer relations with the Russia, which has so lately been Japan's foe on the Outer Mongolian border.

The Italian press made barbed reference to "brutal pressure" by Russia on Finland, thus signifying a difference of opinion with Italy's axis partner, Germany.

The Scandinavian countries, apprehensive of the violence so near their borders, maintained official neutrality, the reaction of individual citizens, however, was one of sorrow and amazement.

In Norway's capital, Oslo, students went to the Finnish legation to express their sympathy, and a crowd broke the windows of a Communist newspaper.

Newspapers in the Netherlands, already prepared for the possibility of war, waxed indignant towards Russia. A man who stoned a Russian bookshop in Amsterdam was arrested.

From Spain came words of sympathy for the Finns. The Madrid newspaper, ABC, called Russia the "brutal, cynical neighbor" of Finland.

MASTER OF SKIES OVER FRANCE—No such plane as this is included in Goering's vaunted air force. France alone of European powers numbers Curtiss pursuit ships among her fighting squadrons. With Britain's Hawker Hurricanes they are keeping the French sky clear of German raiders and reconnaissance planes. Of 27 German Messerschmitts, nine fell victim to nine Curtiss ships in one combat. The reason: Curtiss ships are made for manoeuvrability as well as speed; Curtiss planes are armed with four to six guns, each of which pours forth 2,400 rounds a minute. Two hundred of them have gone to the French air force. As fast as they can be turned out, more will be added to the Allied air strength.

STORM TROOPERS RULE IN PRAGUE—Nazi storm troopers now reign over Prague's Wenceslas Square, above, where 12 persons were injured in Czech Fascist demonstration following general students' uprisings. Nine students were executed, 1,200 others arrested, all Czech universities closed for three years as result of outbreak.

SUB BRINGS HOME A PRIZE—This photo was taken from the deck of a French submarine, which is leading the German freighter, Chemnitz, to an African port after capturing the vessel in the South Atlantic.

HE HAD NOTHING TO SAY—Young John Hurley may not remember the day on which he was presented to the Queen. The introduction was made when Her Majesty visited the City of London maternity home. Being the oldest young man in the house, John, aged six weeks, was chosen to receive the honor. And if he had no suitable reply to make to the greeting, there is little doubt that Her Majesty made her kindly greeting understood to him.

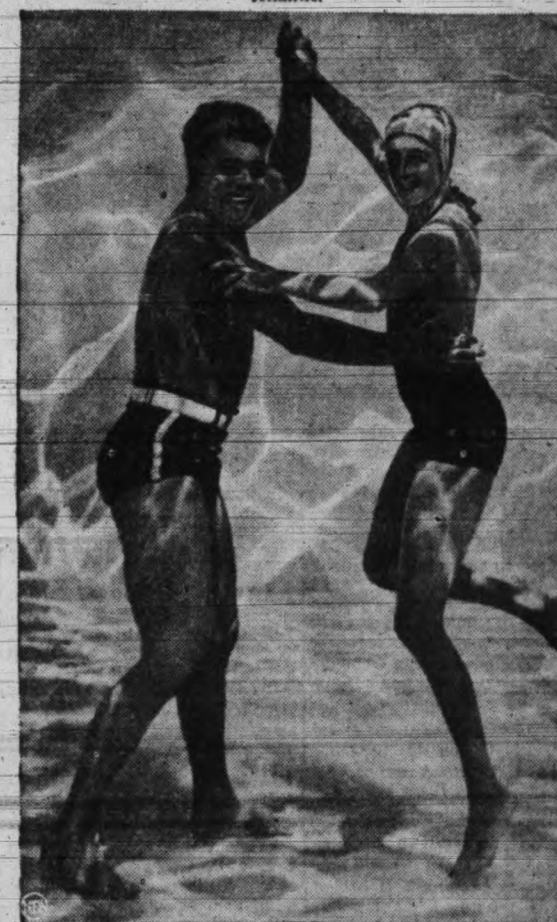

COLLAPSIBLE BOAT FOR FLIERS—Bombers of the Royal Air Force carry collapsible rubber boats which can be released should the machine come down at sea. These are inflated and the seaworthiness of similar types was proved when a party of German raiders on Britain were found afloat in the North Sea after several days in such a boat. An ordinary auto type pump is used to inflate the boats, the work taking but a few minutes. In this photo two sergeants of the R.A.F. are shown with one of the collapsible rubber boats carried by the British bombers. Note the pump for inflating the boat, lying in it. The boat is at an air station of the Coastal Command.

A LONG PULL AND A STRONG PULL—Snappers of the Royal Engineers are shown using muscle power to place a section of a steel bridge in position at an engineering school somewhere in England. Although the role of the engineering corps is primarily technical, it is a combatant arm and trained in the use of rifle and bayonet as well as transit and micrometer.

SWIMMERS DANCE SUB RHUMBA—Blame it on the war at sea. Helen Wood and Rush Hughes get the submarine bug and do a bit of a rumba for an under-water stunt in a Palm Springs, Calif., swimming pool.

Alley Oop On Parade

Alley Oop, rambunctious caveman hero of the Times comic strip of the same name, is pictured below riding his trusty steed, "Dinny," through the streets of Newark, N.J., in the parade sponsored by Bamberger's department store.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF VISITS SCOTTISH TROOPS—General Viscount Gort, commander-in-chief of the British forces in France, is shown here, right, interestedly watching men of a Highland regiment "digging in" in the forward sector of the British lines on the western front. It is interesting to note that these troops still retain their colorful kilts. Much objection has been raised by the Highland regiments to replacing the kilt with the more serviceable cover-all uniform.

FATHER CHAINS SON TO BED—As punishment for a misdeed, Georgie Woods, 8, was sent to bed by his father and chained there for 48 hours. If the father, Grant Woods, 40, is well enough to stand imprisonment, Los Angeles police may arrest him for mistreatment of a minor.

LEGLESS BEAUTY WINS DRIVING LICENSE—Jessie Simpson, famed Teaneck, N.J., beauty who lost her legs in a railroad accident, passed State road tests and received a driver's license. She is pictured at Hackensack, N.J., entering the midget-type car which she drove for the inspectors.

Juvenile Day On Tomorrow

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

WE HAVE dealt many times with the speed attained by humans and machines but never have delved into the mystery of the ability of some animals to get over ground. Size, even conformation does not play the big part in an animal's speed that one might think. Streamlining helps, as witness the eel and the otter, but the elephant is as far from being streamlined as any animal you can think of, and the elephant can step right along on occasion.

Authorities, in discussing the speed of various animals, generally concede the cheetah the championship. This member of the cat family, not as ferocious as he looks, has been clocked at 70 miles per hour over a measured course and momentarily has reached 80 miles per hour. This, in the belief of Frank Lane, author of "Nature Parade" recently published in England, puts him in a class by himself. Just about at the other extreme, according to Lane, is, as you might expect, the tortoise who whizzes by in his streamlined cab at one-tenth of a mile per hour.

The cheetah can manoeuvre, too. His long, heavy tail helps him throw his weight around corners and obstacles at little diminution of speed.

Elephants ramble along at 25 miles per hour and have been known to overtake cars at this speed. Greatest speed reached by man, at about the middle of a 100-yard race, is also approximately 25 miles per hour but that is reached momentarily and over any more extended distance, don't try to out run an elephant. Charging rhinos move along at 30 miles per hour and have nearly overtaken horsemen at this speed. One incident is on record of a rhinoceros chasing a car going 35 miles per hour and not giving up for nearly a mile.

Buffalo have been timed at approximately 35 miles per hour and lions at 50. A polar bear rambling at a 16-mile-an-hour rate. Fear is a stimulant and hedgehogs and porcupines, which ordinarily stroll along at one mile an hour, can reach 10 if something scary enough is behind them.

And, in the interests of science animals have been artificially stimulated to greater efforts. The sloth, personification of slowness, has a usual gait of one-half mile per hour. But experiments made in Panama show that a needed sloth shakes off his lethargy and (Turn to Page 20, Col. 2)

Considerable interest is being shown in the first annual "Juvenile Day" program to be presented tomorrow at the Athletic Park and officials are expecting the soccer public to turn out in full force to witness the attractive two and a half hour show.

Highlight of the afternoon's menu will be the big battle between the Press eleven and the Army and Navy squad, which will get under way at 2.45, with two referees, T. M. Robb and Dave McMillan, officiating. This is the first time two whistle-tooters have been used here for one game.

Both teams look strong on paper and the general opinion is that it will be a hard-fought affair. While the scribes look on their selection as potential winners, they will find the soldier-sports unit no push-over. There is plenty of confidence of victory in the United Services camp.

Bill Hook and Bill Huskins will run the lines in this engagement. The program will open at 2 with Gorge Aces playing Shamrocks in the under 14 division. Five-a-side teams will perform during the afternoon also.

Line-ups follow: Press team—Stewardson, J. Okell and Fieldhouse; Lorandini, Kennedy and Restell; Travis, "Scotty" Steward, Bissell, Robinson and Holness. Subs: Magnall, Stofor, Saunders and Brown.

Navy-Army team—Clarke; Marsh and Coates; M. Speller, Robinson and Edwards; Blythe, N. Sage, Ross Cockrill and P. Sage. Subs: Kennedy, Castillo and Jim Watt.

Gorge Aces—Ricketts, McArthur, Leiper, Crawford, Wallis, Scott, Eade, Warf, Der, Lister, Wilson, Morely and Duce.

Shamrocks—Down, Callow, Phelps, Ross, Holt, Carmichael, Hood, Sommer, Coe, Richards, Hope, Long and McDowell.

Five-a-side line-ups: Maple Leafs—Jones, Pickford, Braithwaite, Lee and Donaghy.

Rovers—Watson, Barber, Levey, Gouthier and Ransom. St. Louis College—Clarkson, O'Connell, Rafferty, French and Battie.

Pro-Rocs—Hilton, Duplain, Whyte, Earl and Bath. Referee, Terry Peers.

Three Basketball Games at Y.M.C.A.

Three city league basketball games are scheduled for tomorrow night at the Y.M.C.A. gym, with Northwestern Creamery meeting Bombers, Chinese Students opposing Wimpy's Crescents and Ramblers playing West Road.

Some keen action is expected in all three fixtures. The first game, Northwestern Creamery vs. Bombers, will start at 7.

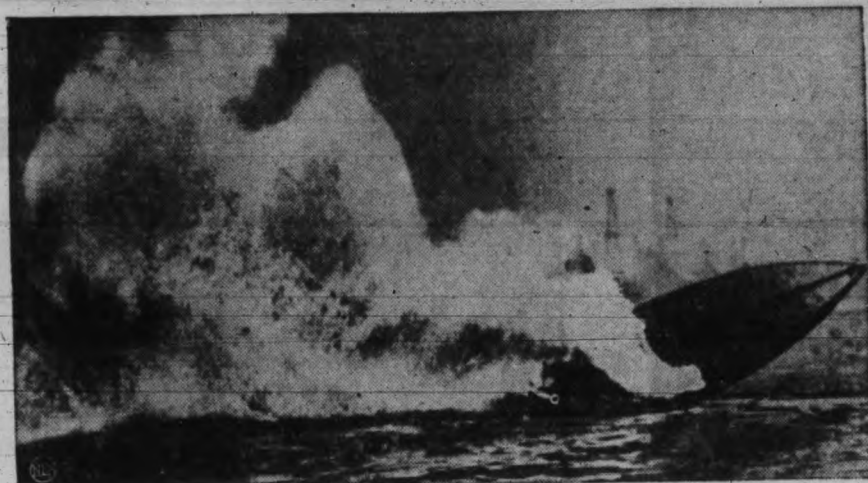

BOXING

BALTIMORE—Pat Comiskey, 203, Jersey City, stopped Maynard Daniels, 193, Manteo, N.C. (six).

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—Bobby Jones, 163, Atlantic City, outpointed Young Gene Buffalo, 154, Philadelphia (10).

WRESTLING

ST. LOUIS—Cliff Gustafson, 240, Govick, Minn., threw Everett Marshall, 225, La Junta, Colo. (30.43).

SPEEDBOAT FLIPS IN TRIALS—Not on the regular program, but a thrill for spectators anyway was this "wing-ding" turnover taken by Thomas Newton's runabout during a trial spin for the annual 50-mile Pacific Coast water marathon at Long Beach, Calif. Pilot and mechanic received a thorough dunking.

Ottawa Rules 3 to 1 Choice

TORONTO (CP)—Ottawa's mammoth Roughriders will throw their weight around here tomorrow against the game Imperials of Sarnia in an eastern Canada senior football final that promises to be nothing like their last meeting in the same event.

Three years ago they collided in the same setting at Varsity Stadium and Sarnia, with the great Hugh Stirling booting the ball far and high, swept over the Riders 26 to 20. Because the west didn't challenge the Imperials took the Dominion championship without a further contest.

Here is 1939 and the Roughriders, with as powerful an offense as the east has turned out in years, are 3 to 1 favorites to continue their march into the national final. Waiting for the winner are Winnipeg's champions of the west, who will come east just before the playoff a week from tomorrow.

Ottawa won the Interprovincial Union title by steam-rolling over the Dominion champion Toronto Argonauts with an attacking machine as swift as it is big. The Imperials, fighting doggedly, squeezed into the Ontario Union playoffs by a single point and won the conference title for the ninth straight time by capitalizing on the errors of Montreal Westmounts.

There is the basis for all the talk of a Roughrider walkover. The people who make the odds still-developing Imperials won't stand up under the battering of power, speed and experience.

Dave Duchak Has Severe Concussion

CALGARY (CP)—X-ray examination yesterday showed Dave Duchak of Calgary Stampede did not suffer a fractured skull when knocked unconscious in an Alberta Senior Hockey League game here Wednesday night against Olds Elks.

Duchak, believed injured in falling to the ice, suffered severe concussion, Dr. L. G. Alexander announced, and would be confined to hospital for a week. The centre, a Moose Jaw, Sask., product, was reported resting well today, and team officials expect he will be in uniform again shortly after January 1.

Cup Rugby

Locals Confident

One change was reported today on the Crimson Tide, Victoria's "Rep" rugby machine, which will travel to Vancouver overnight to oppose Varsity tomorrow in its first McKechnie Cup battle of the season at Varsity Stadium. Coach Wally Brynjolfsson reported that Bob Blair, husky forward, would be unable to make the trip, and that Michael "Tubby" Ley had been selected to replace him in the front line of the scrum.

Coach Brynjolfsson said he would not have hesitated for a moment in predicting a victory for his Tide had the Varsity line-up been the same as that which was beaten by Vancouver "Reps" recently. But the student team has been strengthened considerably since that game, with such players as Strat Leggett and Ronnie Upwood turning out for duty on the pitch.

However, he reported the boys all looked in prime form at their practice session last night at Macdonald Park, "and you can rest assured they will be in there fighting to the last ditch," he said.

The coach figures he has the best team on paper. He has a crew of fast forwards and will utilize this line for all its got if it rains. In fact, Brynjolfsson went so far as to say if it was wet the Capital City "Reps" would come out the victors by eight points. He's got lots of confidence in the ability of his front-line steam roller.

The most formidable individual in the Varsity team's backfield is feet-footed Howie McPhee. But the coach has assigned backfield men Brent Murdoch and Harry Barber to stop this lad. And he is sure they are capable of handling the assignment.

Armstrong Joins Hockey Leaders

Murray Armstrong of Americans picked up four points as the New York team downed Canadiens last night, and moved up among the leaders of the National Hockey League scoring race.

Rangers' high-scoring line of the Colville brothers and Alex Shibicky went to town against Chicago. Neil Colville added two goals and an assist to bring his total to eight, while brother Mac collected a goal and an assist to run his count to nine. Shibicky bagged three assists to move into a tie for second place with nine points.

Geordie Drillon of Toronto Leafs widened his lead by a point when he was credited with an assist gained last week. He now has a three-point margin on the five players tied for second spot.

Leaders follow:

	G.	A.	Pts.
Drillon, Toronto	7	5	12
Blake, Canadiens	6	3	9
Apps, Toronto	5	4	9
Dillon, Detroit	3	6	9
M. Colville, Rangers	3	6	9
Shibicky, Rangers	3	6	9
Armstrong, Americans	5	3	8
N. Colville, Rangers	5	3	8

Young's Cafe and Spencers in Wins

In City Table Tennis League play last night at the Crystal Garden, Spencers and Young's Cafe emerged victorious over Savages and Mount Douglas, respectively.

Spencers took Savages 14 to 6 with Miss R. Payne high player for the store team with four wins. Miss Kay Elston was next with three wins.

Young's Cafe snowed Mount Douglas under 19 to 1.

British Soccer

Two Major Matches

LONDON (CP)—Newcastle and Doncaster have been selected for England's big football games tomorrow. English and Scottish elevens will clash in an unofficial international contest at Tyneside and Doncaster Rovers oppose a representative football association team.

Proceeds of the matches will go to the Red Cross, which already has benefited to the extent of £5,000 ($22,250) from previous representative encounters. In the first international of the season, England drew 1 to 1 with Wales at Cardiff and a week later defeated the Welshmen 3 to 2 at Wrexham.

Scotland is expected to present a strong team, including Tommy Walker, Heart of Midlothian star, at inside-right and R. Ancell, Newcastle United fullback. Two other Newcastle players—T. A. Swinburne and H. Clifton—will line up in England's colors.

Youth and experience are bleaded in the F.A. team to play at Doncaster. Eddie Hapgood, Arsenal, and C. K. Williamson, Huddersfield Town, are seasoned internationals, and J. Mannion, 20-year-old Middlesbrough forward, is the most notable youngster. S. Burton, former Wolverhampton Wanderers right-winger, E. Perry, Fulham centre-forward, and W. Burbanks, Sunderland outside-left, will play for Doncaster.

Seattle Wins Rough Battle

PORTLAND, Ore. (CP)—Vancouver Lions can climb from the cellar to the top of the Coast Hockey League in four days.

Lions, shoved into the basement after Seattle Sea Hawks whipped Portland Buckaroos 2 to 0 in the season's scrappiest encounter here last night, have merely to beat Portland at Vancouver to night and Seattle again at home Monday night.

At the moment Bucks and Hawks lead the loop with three wins apiece, Hawks climbing into the driver's seat with Bucks by virtue of their shutout. Lions are in the cellar with only two wins to their credit in five starts.

There were more major penalties than scores in last night's game, one for 10 minutes and the others of five minutes each when players forgot hockey for the moment and started swinging. And on top of that Goalie Andy Aitkenhead of Portland was fined $15 for arguing with Referee Cam Proudlock.

SUMMARY

First period—1, Seattle, Downie (Kenney), 6.01. Penalties: Ripley (five minutes), Ouellette (five minutes), Downie.

Second period—No scoring. Penalty: McAdam.

Third period—2, Seattle, King, 19.40. Penalties: McCartney, Sutherland (10 minutes), Gil-mour, King, Kenney.

RUGBY GAMES

League and exhibition intermediate rugby games will be played tomorrow afternoon at Macdonald Park. The league fixture will bring together Walter Stipe's J.B.A.A. and Victoria College. Oak Bay Wanderers will tackle Navy in an exhibition game. Both games start at 2.30.

D. C. Robertson New President

At the annual meeting of the Greater Victoria District Lawn Bowling Association recently, D. C. Robertson of the C.P.R. club was named president with J. Goldie of the Victoria Club and A. W. Stewart of the Burnside club, vice-presidents.

Major S. Baxandall of the Victoria club was chosen secretary and D. Dewar of the same club, treasurer. The auditors are A. McKeachie of the Victoria club and G. B. Dixon of the C.P.R. club. A. McCallum of the Lake Hill club and S. Barr of the C.P.R. club, were named umpires.

Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., was elected honorary president.

The dates set for the Victoria tournament were August 5 to 19 and for the Peace Cup, island singles championship, July 6. League games will commence June 7, and will be continued every Friday night, once on every club green—until the series is completed at Lake Hill on July 5.

Ways and means of interesting local players in indoor lawn bowling, introduced last year in Vancouver, was discussed during the meeting.

A more elaborate program was planned for the visitors here during tournaments. Finances were reported to be satisfactory, and the past season's activities showed a good year.

TROPHY TO THOMPSON

TORONTO (CP)—Harold Bailey, secretary of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, announced last night Eddie Thompson of Toronto Balmy Beach has been awarded the Imperial Oil Trophy, presented annually to the O.R.F.U. player who best combined value to his team and sportsmanship.

Share Second Position in Major League

Lester Patrick's New York Rangers, who started out on the low road, are taking the high road now in their National Hockey League travels.

The Blueshirts, who failed to set the league afire in their opening contests, have rallied for a stretch of four unbeaten games and hold second place with Montreal Canadiens in the standing.

The Patrickmen last lost a game on November 19, when they dropped a 2 to 1 decision to Canadiens. Since then they have defeated Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks, and played to draws with Canadiens and the Stanley Cup-holding Boston Bruins.

The high spot in their streak came last night at Chicago as they downed the Hawks 7 to 2 while their intra-urban rivals, the Americans, were downing Canadiens 5 to 2.

As the Rangers rode roughshod over the Hawks, their high-scoring line of the Colville brothers and Alex Shibicky fattened their scoring averages. Neil drew credit for two goals and an assist, while play-making Shibicky drew three assists.

It was a closely-fought game for one period, but after that the Rangers were away. Their lone first-period goal was matched by Chicago, but the Hawks had no reply to two more markers in the second. The second Hawk goal of the night was sandwiched between four Ranger tallies in the third.

SECOND STRAIGHT LOSS

And while Rangers were winning in the west, Americans were delighting the hearts of some 8,500 New York fans with their smashing 5 to 2 win over Canadiens. It was Canadiens' second defeat in a row after they had started the season with a bang, and it cost them the chance to move ahead of Toronto Maple Leafs into first place in the standings.

It was Murray Armstrong who did the fattening of scoring averages in that game. He figured in four of the five American goals, to finish the night with a goal and three assists to add to his total. Until Anderson took a (Turn to Page 20, Col. 1)

SAANICH "COUNTRY STORE"

The Farmers' and Women's Institutes of Saanich will hold their annual Country Store on Friday, December 8 in the Temperance Hall, Keating. The Britannia Branch Canadian Legion concert party will be on hand with amusements for all; there will be tombolas and good refreshments and a five-piece band will supply the music for the dance.

Members of the City Council were invited to Portland's Rose Festival next June in a communication which reached the City Hall today.

Canned Milk a Dairy Product

Canned milk was classified as a dairy product in a judgment handed down by Magistrate Hall in the City Police Court this morning when he dismissed a charge against Wing, Chinese merchant, of serving groceries on a Wednesday afternoon in contravention of the Wednesday Half Holiday Act.

The magistrate pointed out the accused operated a store to which the act only applied in the case of a sale of groceries and the case therefore depended on the classification of canned milk which police testified was purchased.

In the ordinary way canned milk would probably come within the scope of groceries, but the offence was under a penal statute which did not permit extension of the interpretation of words. Dairy products were exempt under the act. In giving canned milk this classification the magistrate pointed out butter was exported in cans and he did not feel that this would make butter a grocery rather than a dairy product.

He could only conclude canned milk was a dairy product and the accused was therefore entitled to dismissal.

L. A. GROGAN MAY RUN IN OAK BAY

Reports in Oak Bay this week indicate that Leo A. Grogan, chartered accountant, 2580 Bowker Avenue, may run for the Oak Bay Council.

While no confirmation of this report could be secured from Mr. Grogan as he was up-land today, Reeve R. R. Taylor said that he believed he would be a candidate. Three councillors are to be elected. Councillors J. V. Johnson and P. Archie Gibbs will seek re-election. Councillors W. Len Woodhouse is withdrawing this year and Mr. Grogan's name is the first that has been mentioned to contest the seat.

Stirling Gunn was sentenced to 15 days' imprisonment with hard labor when he pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning to a vagrancy charge. Constable Thomas Stevenson testified he arrested the accused in the Fairfield district, where he had been begging from house to house and collected $1.30.

TOWN TOPICS

Dr. G. Marshall Monsey, Bible teacher, will speak tonight at the Alliance Tabernacle at 8.

Esquimalt's view on transportation tender matters were outlined in a brief received today at the City Hall.

The Oak Bay Fire Department was called out this morning to attend a small fire in a house in the 2000 block, Haultain Street. There was only slight damage.

When he pleaded guilty to a charge of dangerous driving, H. C. Watson was fined $30 by Magistrate Hall in the City Police Court this morning. Police said he was stopped when driving on Johnson Street in an erratic manner, weaving from one side of the road to the other.

Capt. C. S. Leary of Kaslo-Slocan, Liberal whip in the Legislature, was honored by fellow Liberals yesterday, following prorogation when he was presented with a set of silver spoons by Premier Pattullo. Howard Forester, Vancouver, deputy whip, was presented with a silver tray.

One appeal was conditionally allowed and two declined by the city zoning board of appeal at its meeting in the City Hall yesterday afternoon. Provisional permission was granted Irving McKelvey to move a garage to his property at 739 Kings Road. T. H. Maynard was refused permission to install plumbing at 1760 First Street and use of a building on the same property as a dwelling was forbidden after December 31.

A tempting assortment of jams, pickles, cakes, cookies and breads has been assembled for the home cooking stall which the women's auxiliary to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry will conduct tomorrow from 9 to 1 in the hardware department of David Spencer Limited. The proceeds will be used to purchase comforts for the "Pats," who left Victoria recently and who are now in training for service overseas.

Marie Patelli, otherwise Patricia Lang, 19-year-old girl, was remanded for sentence later she pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning to a charge of forging a doctor's prescription for drugs. She will be sentenced tomorrow. C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, told the court she had presented the forged prescription to a druggist and had had it filled. The girl said she lived in Vancouver.

IN SOLARIUM SHOW—Miss Elaine Basanta, one of Victoria's most gifted singers, will take part in the variety show tonight and tomorrow night at the Empire Theatre, being presented by the Victoria Celebrations Committee in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

Little Action On Civic Front

Prospects of one of the quietest civic elections in recent history were seen at the City Hall today, six days before nominations must be filed for the posts of mayor, five aldermen and four school trustees.

To date no one has come forward to oppose Mayor Andrew McGavin for the office of chief magistrate. If he is given acclamation, it will be the first time since he won the chair three years ago from the late David Leeming. Contests were assured for the aldermanic seats with all incumbents seeking re-election against a field which so far includes two former aldermen, Alex Peden and W. D. Todd as well as Mrs. Alice McGregor and Joe North. Those seeking return are Aldermen Ed. Williams, R. A. C. Dewar, S. H. Okell, B. J. Gadsden and W. H. Davies.

So far there are only four candidates seeking four school board posts. They are Trustees F. G. Mulliner, J. S. McMillan, W. E. Stansland and Wm. A. Bayliss. M. J. Little, prominently mentioned as a possible aspirant, today stated he would not seek office.

Voters' lists, showing a total of 12,604 entitled to the franchise, 474 more than were enrolled last year, are now available at the City Hall.

Mayor McGavin indicated today he intended to sponsor no public meeting this year at which accounts of stewardship and campaign speeches could be made.

Mr. North, in a statement of his platform, said: "I am in favor of a sports centre and arena, believing that such a building would fill a long-felt want in the community. I am for the citizens at all times, and am a lover of the people."

"Transportation problems need further study in order to secure the best possible system for the city and adjoining municipalities. The company offering the best proposition should receive the franchise."

"I contend that no man or elected body has any right to disfranchise the people. Hence I am strongly in favor of a police commission elected by the voters."

Intercity Debate

A team of three from the Debaters' Group of the Chamber of Commerce will oppose forces of the Toastmasters' Club No. 1, Seattle, in a public debate in the City Council Chamber tomorrow evening at 8.

R. Anderson, T. Woolson and George Beck will put forward Victoria's arguments in the affirmative on the question "Resolved that trade unions are in the best interests of industry."

The difficulty of determining the proprietor of the Hong Kong Cafe to be arraigned on the liquor charge which city police have laid, was solved in Police Court this morning by the identification of Yung Chow as the owner.

Lee Kim was previously summoned to answer the charge, but evidence at the last hearing showed he was not the owner. The charge against him was dismissed. Today Yung Chow and John Chilton were summoned on the same charge. Each was remanded a week without plea.

165 Artists in Solarium Show

With 165 artists taking part in 16 acts, the Queen Alexandra Solarium benefit variety show at the Empire Theatre this evening and tomorrow evening, promises to be one of the finest entertainments of its kind ever presented for Victoria audiences.

"There has been a fair demand for tickets for both nights," Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the Victoria celebrations committee which is sponsoring the show, said this morning. "I hope the citizens of Victoria will pack the house both nights, not only for the excellent entertainment that will be provided, but for the worthy cause of the show."

The proceeds of both nights will be presented to the Solarium. Expenses have been cut to a minimum, Mr. Davies said. The final dress rehearsal was held at the theatre last night. A feature of the show will be a patriotic pageant with members of the Victoria Girls' drill team, taking part.

The team, under the direction of Capt. Norman Foster, will present a drill display in addition to the patriotic pageant performance. The provincial recreation girls' class will give another mass act in dancing and drilling. The Gizeh Shrine Temple Band will be in attendance.

A number of individual dancing performances and acts will be presented by the Russian Ballet School of Dancing, and singing and musical instrument numbers will be heard. The shows will start promptly at 8. Tickets will be available at the box office of the theatre.

BUILDING GAIN FOR NOVEMBER

Building values in Victoria during November were approximately $10,600 above those of the same month last year, although the number of homes and duplexes constructed during the period were the same.

Last month 59 permits were issued for work worth $66,954, against 53 worth $56,375 in November, 1938.

Despite the monthly increase the values for the year to date continued considerably behind those of 1938, the total up to November 30 last year being $723,810, against $662,518 at the end of last month. This year, however, there have been 677 permits issued, 65 more than during the corresponding 1938 period.

Last month five homes and two duplexes were built with values listed at $16,560 and $7,000, respectively. In November last year five homes were valued at $13,250 and two duplexes at $5,400.

BURPEE PREDICTS TRAVEL AHEAD

VANCOUVER — British Columbia and the Canadian Rockies are bound to share heavily in a redistribution of American travel expenditures caused by war conditions, said G. Bruce Burpee, general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, on his return from a tour of Canadian Pacific general agencies in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The passenger official, who visited his company's coast offices in company with his chief, R. G. McNeillie, passenger traffic manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, said transportation men and travel agencies in the United States regard Canada as a "favoured nation" in respect to tourist travel.

"Now that travel to countries abroad is blocked," said Mr. Burpee, "the feeling in the American cities I visited is that Canada will gain a big share of the estimated $250,000,000 spent annually by Americans in travel off the North American continent."

British Columbia generally, Vancouver Island and the Canadian Rockies will benefit greatly by the condition, the passenger official said, and it should increase travel to Alaska out of Vancouver and on the various B.C. Coast Steamship cruises out of Victoria and Vancouver.

"This will definitely be a 'see the Americas first' year for travel," he concluded. "And it is a safe prediction that Canada's unrivalled scenery and climate will attract possibly record-breaking numbers of American tourist visitors."

Record Clipper Flight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Honolulu Clipper completed the fastest round-trip San Francisco-New Zealand flight on record yesterday preparatory to the contemplated establishment of regular service.

Application for a permit is before the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

The Honolulu Clipper left its Treasure Island base here November 18. The round-trip to New Zealand approximated 16,000 miles.

No flight record was sought. Pan American Airways said. The trip—third to be made over a similar course by the airline—was to familiarize personnel with the flight, transfer company employees and take materials to Pacific bases.

C.P.R. Official Dies

MONTREAL (CP)—William James Uren, 67, retired assistant general superintendent of Quebec district of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, died today at his home here. Burial will be at St. Mary's, Ont.

BRITAIN TO BUY SHIP TONNAGE

LONDON (CP)—The Daily Mail said today Sir John Gilmour, shipping minister, is working on a plan for speedy augmentation of Great Britain's merchant fleet for trade expansion purposes by purchases from Canadian and neutral owners and builders.

The newspaper added: "Negotiations with some countries will be carried out in London and with others through British representatives in the countries concerned. In special cases British emissaries will be sent with full powers to complete the deals."

Contraband Control System in Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—Great Britain's navy system, designed to speed approved goods through contraband patrol areas to neutral European ports, went into effect today.

The system amounts to a pre-examination of exports by British consulates. The consuls were authorized to accept the first applications for such examinations today.

A navicert, or naval certificate, may be presented to a British contraband patrol to show that the British government already knows the nature of a shipment and has no objection to its transportation to a neutral country.

Thus, if an entire cargo were covered by navicerts, the patrols ordinarily would permit the vessel to proceed without examination. The British embassy in Washington has made clear that navicerts do not offer an absolute guarantee of free passage, however, but will expedite shipments to neutrals.

MERCHANT SEAMEN BULWARK IN WAR

OTTAWA (CP)—It is on the masters of British merchant ships, more than on any other group of service that the winning or losing of this war depends, a naval officer said in a statement released by the National Defence Department in appreciation of British merchant seamen.

"They are products of the breeding and tradition of centuries and trained in the longest and hardest school of any profession in the world," said the naval officer of British merchant skippers. From boyhood their life is one of responsibility, discomfort, hardship and danger. "In wartime there is added the imminence of sudden death from torpedoes, gunfire, mines and aerial bombs," said the naval officer. "From them their countrymen may well take courage and in them their enemies would do well to recognize a solid bulwark that admits of no defeat."

Ship Pirate Repulsed

SHANGHAI (AP)—Pirates attacked the British steamship Wuhan this morning at the mouth of the Yangtze River, but fled in their junks when the British gunboat Gnat sped to the rescue.

Russian guards aboard the Wuhan battled the pirates, one of whom was killed and one seriously injured. One of the guards and a Chinese crewman also were wounded.

The Wuhan was en route from South China to Shanghai.

Destroyer Ashore

WASHINGTON (AP)—The navy received word last night that a removable weight was being taken from the destroyer Reuben James, grounded off the coast of Cuba, preliminary to efforts to free her today.

The navy vessels, Ranger and Fox, reported they were standing by the destroyer. Navy tugs are en route from Key West, Fla., and Guantanamo, Cuba, to try to pull the destroyer free.

The Reuben James, operating in the Atlantic neutrality patrol, was aground about 15 miles off Lobos Bay light. Officials said there were no casualties and that the ship was not in danger.

RANGERS BEAT CHICAGO IN NEW VICTORY DRIVE

pass from Wiseman to rap in the last goal of the night with 30 seconds left in the third period, Armstrong had figured in every goal-producing play the Americans had made.

Americans opened the scoring after six minutes of play, when Harvey Jackson took Armstrong's pass to beat young Claude Bourque. Canadiens got that one back before the period ended when Charlie Sands scored.

Canadiens went ahead at the five-minute mark in the second period on Ray Gettiffe's goal, but Americans tied it up at the 14-minute mark and went ahead to stay late in the second period. Canadiens forced the play throughout the final frame, but managed only to leave themselves open for breakaways that brought two more American goals late in the game.

fairly rips off the furlongs at the rate of one mile per hour.

Of all animals most is known about the speed of thoroughbred horses. Equipoise ran a mile in 1:34.25, an average of about 38 miles per hour. Iron Mask and Pan Zareta were clocked quarter miles at a speed of about 41 miles per hour.

This places the racehorse and the greyhound on much the same basis, for greyhounds travel at about 36 miles per hour, but of course for much shorter distance than the horse.

Faster than this are several animals, the fox, the zebra, the kangaroo and the giraffe. At about the same rate as the horse and the dog is the African gazelle, generally credited with greater speed.

However, the giraffe as a speed demon is overrated, according to Robert Bean, director of Chicago's Brookfield Zoo. The giraffe's forelegs may look like they were built for long-striding speed, but the animal tires quickly. After 500 yards a man on horseback can run down a giraffe.

This invaluable information about who to chase and who not to chase, can be concluded with the reptile.

As for reptiles, Bean points out there isn't much use for any able-bodied person worrying about being overtaken by any of them. "I can walk as fast as a reptile can crawl," he says, "and do it longer."

Ships Notified of Mines

LONDON (CP)—The Admiralty informed neutral shipping last night that the navy had laid a new mine field of about 300 square miles in the North Sea, midway between the Thames estuary and the mouth of the Scheldt River, the Netherlands.

COLWOOD

The annual meeting of St. John's Women's Auxiliary will be held December 5 at 2:30, when there will be presentation of the annual reports and election of officers.

Placating a heartsick debutante, Kathryn Adams, is one of the duties undertaken by Ginger Rogers when a millionaire tycoon brings her into his household to straighten out his multiple family entanglements. It's the brisk comedy theme of "Fifth Avenue Girl," now at the Dominion Theatre.

Okanagan Gains By Apple Plan

VERNON, B.C. (CP)—Okanagan Valley fruit growers today were cheered by a report from the national apple committee at Ottawa that shipment to Great Britain of all apples held on firms' contracts before November 20 will be permitted.

Shippers said the valley "has gone through a most precarious season tolerably well."

Consigned fruit shipments have already gone forward in liberal quantities, but, following the declaration of a 50 per cent embargo, Okanagan shippers feared they would not be able to fill orders already completed with Great Britain if the fruit had not actually been forwarded.

'Lion Has Wings' Opens Tomorrow

"The Lion Has Wings," the motion picture Their Majesties braved a blackout to see in London recently, will open at the Capitol Theatre on Saturday.

While chief interest of the picture lies in an outline of Royal Air Force operation and an estimate of Great Britain's air strength, "The Lion Has Wings" has been dramatized, with Ralph Richardson and Merle Oberon in the roles of a young couple who are serving their country through the R.A.F. and Red Cross.

Several points of excitement and tension are reached, notably a re-enactment of the raid on the Kiel Canal and defence from a Nazi night foray by searchlight, balloon barrage and anti-aircraft. The picture opens with a 25-minute newsreel review of the "War of Nerves" which preceded the outbreak of the actual conflict.

Several neat effects in this preface draw laughs, particularly "shots" which contrasted the tipster of Epsom, good-naturedly hawking his bets, with Hitler's furious rantings.

"The Lion Has Wings" is not so much propaganda for the R.A.F., or recruiting, or for the glory of war (it candidly admits the unpleasantness of the task), but reassuring documentary information which will most certainly ease the minds of a lot of mothers and fathers who see it.

And the best argument for the British way of living still remains in the shot of Their Majesties singing "Underneath the Spreading Chestnut Tree."

'FIFTH AVENUE GIRL,' DOMINION

One of the season's most delightful pictures is "Fifth Avenue Girl," Ginger Rogers' new starring vehicle for RKO Radio, which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

The picture revolves around the hectic experiences of a working girl guest in a stately Fifth Avenue home. She is hired for the job by the discouraged head of the family, who despairs of ever persuading his wife and children to regard him as other than a walking bank account.

The girl's advent, as expected, alters the situation considerably. The wife, thinking her husband intends to marry the girl as soon as she goes to Reno, changes her plans and decides to stick around. How the various tangled threads of the principal characters' careers are finally straightened out forms the hilarious climax to the offering, while the heroine adjusts her own problems as well.

CADET THEATRE

The Great Blacaman, Hindu animal hypnotist who plays a feature role in Universal's "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man," now at the Cadet Theatre, is a genuine master of wild beasts. He proved this conclusively during the production of the picture, which stars W. C. Fields with Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy.

The question of whether the craze of jittermania or jitterbug dancing will soon die out or whether it is a further manifestation of the world-wide collapse of morals feared by many as a prelude to disaster is a question in which every thinking person is profoundly interested. In "Mad Youth," the picture which will open at the Plaza Theatre on Monday, the way in which so many of the youth of America spend their hours of recreation is shown on the screen.

Betty Compson, well known to every movie fan, turns in a performance in "Mad Youth" equal to any of her great roles of the past.
